

"Education Or Buses," Directors of Acalanes High School Tell Parents

The Acalanes High School District Board Wednesday night indicated it would "reconsider" drastic cutbacks in school bus service, but made it clear that "the first and foremost job of the board is education."

After being peppered with protests from members of a crowd of more than 100 at a meeting in the school auditorium, Bill Lee, board chairman, said, "This group can't ignore a representative like this, and we don't intend to. We certainly will reconsider—but the first and foremost job of the board is to provide education."

A LARGE delegation from Las Lomas High School was represented by Terence Ring, Walnut Creek attorney, who said petitions protesting the eliminating of bus stops closer than two miles to schools had been signed by representatives of 286 families.

"Meadow Lane and other streets are speedways. Parents are reluctant to put their youngsters on those streets. I dare you to walk down the Danville Highway along Mt. Diablo any time of day—I dare you to try to get across El Cerrito."

"WE ASK YOU to re-evaluate the whole situation. We know you have a financial problem. But there is an undistributed reserve fund of 124,000, and we ask you to use some of that money to put some of these buses back in operation."

"But faced with rising costs of education, Lee said, the district doesn't necessarily have to provide bus service just because it's done so in the past."

"Tamalpais eliminated all bus transportation two or three years ago," he pointed out. "It's an example of a district which has found tradition doesn't mean forever. We feel our responsibility doesn't necessarily include transportation. And a 5 per cent reserve fund is necessary."

Trustee Bill Freeman declared, "We had to cut down on non-educational factors, and the first item we could cut was bus service."

It had to be cut to maintain the same level of education," ROBERT SOUTHWORTH, representing the Sun Valley Improvement Association, after noting that voters had recently turned down an increase of the school tax ceiling from $1.75 to $2.25, declared, "The ugly thought sticks in my mind that this was a fine way to publicize the need for a tax increase."

"We felt that the bus system should be sacrificed before we cut down on education," Freeman answered. "It was simply a matter of facing an economic necessity."

Trustee Alice McBride said, "Up to this year youngsters living within a mile of schools walked, and certainly they faced traffic hazards in doing so. It's true that they have farther to go, but certainly streets aren't any more hazardous for those walking two miles."

Lee noted that reduction in bus service has meant a saving to the district of between $18,000 and $19,000, and declared that "the question here tonight is whether or not that saving should be cut instead from our educational program."

VOLUNTEERS from EBMUD and the Forestry Department, and even youngsters like the one in this picture helped the Orinda Fire Department bring a grass fire near Orinda under control Friday. It started near La Questa Road and covered 150 acres. Volunteer at left is not identified. Youngster is Roger Howard of La Questa Road, and, at right, Chuck Piazza of Forestry Department.

Huge Grass Fire Blamed on Boy With Firecracker

The setting off of a firecracker by a 9-year-old boy Friday started a fire that blazed across 150 acres of hilly country between Pine Grove School and Altamira Estates.

Strong breezes hampered the efforts of volunteers, the Orinda Fire Department and firefighters from East Bay Municipal Utility District, who fought the fire for more than four hours Friday afternoon before bringing it under control.

THE FIRE WAS started near La Cuesta, said Fire Marshall William Koch, by a boy who lit a firecracker he'd found on his school grounds.

Four fire trucks from the Orinda Fire Department, eight jeeps from the East Bay Municipal Utility District and many volunteers took part in the battle with the fire.

Swept southward by winds, the fire traveled along the hill ridge toward Altamira Estates homes and Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

INCLUDED in volunteers fighting the fire were residents of the neighborhood and school children, who used shovels, sacks and pump cans to battle advancing flames.

For a time officials of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company were afraid the fire would ignite utility poles along Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

Traffic along the highway east of the Crossroads Interchange slowed sometimes to a halt as drivers watched the spectacular fire.

Although the area was covered with poison oak, Fire Chief Everett Wyatt said no firemen reported cases of poisoning.

Orinda Village Parking Lot Ready for Use

A parking lot at the rear of Orinda Village stores on property owned by Leon Woolsey became ready for use by customers as the Orinda Bypass neared completion.

Creation of the parking lot on about an acre of ground, with room for 70 to 80 automobiles, was made possible by payment by Leon Woolsey to the county of the cost of a culvert and of surfacing of the area during highway construction.

Woolsey said that the parking area, now surfaced with rock, will be covered later with blacktop.

The triangular-shaped lot extends from back of the fire station to the bridge.

Governor Visits Rotary Club

Rotary District Governor William S. Palmer of Walnut Creek held two meetings with Orinda members of the club yesterday. At the noon luncheon in Casa Orinda he discussed his trip to Lake Placid and visits to various clubs in the east in preparing for his office.

At a meeting with club officers and committee chairmen last night in the home of Past President Leighton MacGregor he helped review plans for club activities during the coming year. Local club officers are Joe Duffell, president; Harold Bryant, secretary; Gordon Heche, treasurer; and Rollin Moore, sergeant-at-arms.

The speaker at next week's Rotary Club luncheon will be Brother Albert of St. Mary's College.

Judge Rules Richmond, San Pablo Out of Transit Unit

Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin County Superior Court, late Wednesday, upheld the plea of a group of Contra Costa taxpayers and ruled that Richmond and San Pablo shall be excluded by the Alameda Contra Costa Transit District.

In his ruling, however, Judge Keating noted that the unincorporated areas, Rollingwood, El Sobrante and Kensington would be retained within the boundaries of the district.

AS THE SUN went to press last night, directors of the district had not disclosed whether they would appeal the decision of the Marin County Court.

The Marin County Court was selected as neutral ground by the transit district, whose headquarters are in Berkeley, and the Contra Costa Transit Council, whose headquarters are Martinez.

Four directors met at 8 last night to render a decision on three petitions for exclusion from the transit district filed by 95 land owners of 50 square miles of nearby industrial and agricultural land in northern Contra Costa.

Witnesses at a Wednesday night meeting of the Transit District which was called for hearing were sworn in for testimony by Robert K. Barber, president of the district.

HEARD WERE Harry Morrison, secretary treasurer of the Contra Costa Transit Council and George Gordon, Martinez attorney of the council.

The board ruled that it would consider the report of John Worthington, general manager of the district, and the testimony of petitioners before making its decision last night.

Worthington indicated in his report to the board of directors that he was not opposed to the withdrawal of the area from the district.

HE SAID the district would lose $8500 in tax monies based on its 1.4 cent per $100 of assessed valuation, but the district would suffer a net loss of $50,000 if it had to serve areas of the John Swett School District, Alhambra Union High School district and the Avon component of the Mt. Diablo Unified School district and the Avon Unified School District.

The petitioners testified that all these areas are common inasmuch as they are either heavy industrial, sparsely populated agricultural or will have no population increase to support a transportation system.

Gary Holtwick Presented With Eagle Scout Award

Gary Holtwick was advanced to the rank of Eagle Scout at an impressive court of honor held by Troop 247 of Orinda at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church on Friday. The award of the Eagle rank to Gary was the first in Troop 247, and was the climax to a program which included awards of every rank in scouting and 68 merit badges.

Gary, 14, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen C. Holtwick, 10 Las Palmas, Orinda. He is now a freshman at Miramonte High School. While at Pine Grove School, Gary served as class representative and student body treasurer and belonged to the Scholastic Society. He was awarded letters in football and basketball and was president of the Teen-age Club. Gary has served as senior patrol leader of his troop and attended the National Jamboree at Valley Forge last year.

John Youmans, executive of the Mt. Diablo Council, presided over the court of honor. The speaker was Ted Boyce, principal of Pine Grove School, who attested to Gary's fine record and achievements while at that school. Roger Bond, Scoutmaster, presented the Eagle badge to Gary.

Preceding the Eagle Court, Troop 247 held its regular Troop court of honor in which awards earned during the summer were presented. Ralph Holms, Troop committee chairman, presided.

Charles Jenkins, activities director of Camp Wallace Alexander, which the Troop attended this past summer, presented the 68 merit badges to the following Scouts: Harold Bond, Charles Brock, Jim Crall, Clint DeWitt, Grigg DeWitt, Albion Harmon, Ted Howard, Larry Hunn, Jess Knudsen, Robert Lester, Steve Miller, Jim Rose, Kenneth Soult, Robert Spott, Mike Sweeney, Don Woodcock and Eric Unruh.

Kenneth Hamberg and Tom Unruh were awarded their Second Class badges by C. L. Dunn, Troop committeeman.

Harold Bond, Albion Harmon, Greg Holm and Charles Brock were advanced to the First Class rank by R. W. Lester, Troop committeeman.

Six Scouts achieved Star Scout. They included Jim Crall, Ted Howard, Robert Lester, Robert Spott, Mike Sweeney and Eric Unruh. They received the badges from A. K. Harmon.

The second highest rank in scouting, that of Life Scout, was earned by Jeff Knudsen. N. A. Hamberg of the Troop committee made the award.

The invocation was given by Rev. Andrew Daughters of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and the closing prayer was led by Rev. Chauncey E. Blossom of the Orinda Community Church.

AFS Exchange Students Return Here Next Week

Donna Hunt and Dan Funk, Acalanes exchange students, will be returning next week from their summer in Europe. Under the auspices of the American Field Service they have spent their summer in European homes, living as members of the families who welcomed them.

Donna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd D. Hunt of 3925 Pearsdale Avenue, Lafayette, was with Mr. and Mrs. Ing Franz Holweg, and their three children, in Voitsberg, Austria. Voitsberg, a small town near the university city of Graz, is in the southeastern part of Austria.

OF HER experiences, Donna writes, "My Austrian family has done everything possible to make my stay here pleasant. I speak little German, and everything was so very strange, but quickly I became adjusted to my family's life. The home in which we live was built in 1831. My family was amused when I said our home is old, (being eight years), for here everything is steeped in tradition."

In July the Holwegs took Donna on a trip through the province of Styria, which included some of the most scenic portions of Austria. Donna's letter to her parents includes the following description: "Part of the trip was along the Mur River. Along the way my 'father' was telling me stories about the little villages.

Plans for Opening Of Orinda Bypass Are Completed

Supervisor Mel Nielsen will cut a ribbon at noon Wednesday to mark the opening of the Orinda Village Bypass.

John Ogden, president, and other representatives of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce will be present at the ceremony, according to Clarence Betz, chamber secretary, as will Vic Sauer, county public works director, Mark Kermit, traffic engineer, and Jack Cunningham, former supervisor.

Sauer and other county officials will probably be guests of the chamber within a week or two to discuss details of the new bypass, Betz said.

CONSTRUCTION started on August 1, 1957. The four-lane, limited-access county highway will carry heavy traffic around the Orinda Village business district and eliminate congestion in the bypassed section due to mixing of local and through traffic.

The newly constructed length of 1.17 miles extends from the Orinda Interchange on State Highway 24, where turning movements completely separated from opposing traffic are provided, to Ardrilla Road where the connection is made to the sole remaining unimproved section of the San Pablo Dam Road. Preliminary plans for the improvement of this 1-mile section have been prepared.

AS PROVIDED in the road bond issue of 1952, the San Pablo Dam Road has been reconstructed to modern two-lane and four-lane standards for 10 of its 11 miles between State Highway 24 in Orinda, and U.S. Highway 40 in the City of San Pablo.

This reconstruction was accomplished by five previous contracts totaling $3,230,000, and this most recently completed contract of $846,000, for a grand total of $4,076,000.

The choice of a new alignment for the section of the project lying between El Toyonal Road and the Orinda Interchange was made after a consideration of the difficulties involved in widening the original road, and the benefits to be derived from the new alignment, according to Vic Sauer, Public Works Department director.

THE FACTORS affecting the decision were:

1. Reduction of traffic through the business district in the Orinda Village section and in the vicinity of the public school.
2. EXCESSIVE COST of land required for widening the old road due to the high order of development along the right-of-way.
3. Difficulty of providing a workable intersection with Camino Sobrante because of the steep grade involved.
4. Benefits to business district zoning which would be derived from the improved traffic circulation provided by adequate connections between the old and new facilities.

OFFSETTING these advantages were:

1. Conflict between the San Pablo Creek channel and the new highway. Because the highway would be constructed over the creek channel, it was necessary to provide double 10-foot by 9-foot reinforced-concrete box culverts 500-foot and 1100-foot in length, and a concrete-lined trapezoidal channel 1650-foot in length to convey the creek flow through the construction area.
2. These drainage structures were designed to handle a flow of 3500 cubic feet of water per second, together with any debris which might be encountered, and they proved to be more than adequate as evidenced by the ease with which the flow from the once-in-forty-year storm of April 2, 1958 was passed.
3. Increased grading cost due to the deep cuts and high fills involved in the hilly location.
4. The new alignment was chosen after carefully weighing the traffic flow, safety and economic advantages against the increased difficulties of construction.

Free Bus Rides Offered Visitors To Open House

Free bus service will be offered visitors to the Orinda Open House when it opens Friday evening, October 3, Al Baer, chairman for the Orinda Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of the event, announced yesterday.

Hours for the event, when residents of Orinda will visit the business firms of their community to learn and at the same time be entertained, will be from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Friday, October 3, and from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Saturday, October 4.

Baer explained that a bus has been chartered for October 3 so that people can park their cars and easily visit the Village, the Village Shopping Center, the Crossroads, and the new direct dialing installation of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

"THIS WILL be the first time the new telephone building is open to the public," Baer said. "Demonstrations of how the direct dialing system works will be made. This is just one of the many features of the Open House."

Firms will put out the welcome mat for visitors with demonstrations and exhibits, offer souvenirs and serve refreshments.

Public utilities, government branches, the Armed Services—all have been invited to offer demonstrations. As examples of the kind of attractions merchants will offer, Baer noted the following:

MORAGA VALLEY Nursery will demonstrate methods of planting and plant care, and re-pot plants free of charge.

The Village Shoe Shop will demonstrate shoe repairing, give free heels and pop guns to youngsters.

Sproule-Reitz will present a "Do-It-Yourself" Christmas display and serve refreshments.

Hundreds of Orindans and their families are expected to visit firms they may never have seen before, get acquainted with their neighbors, and have a good time.

Newcomers Club Begins Fall Meetings Wednesday

Are you a newcomer to Orinda who would like to meet other newcomers, and become acquainted with your new community? The Newcomers Club of Orinda is looking forward to a second very successful year in helping newcomers do just this, with the commencement of its regular monthly meetings at the home of Mrs. Wilfred L. Clearman, 3 Rustic Way, on Wednesday at 12 noon.

The Newcomers Club of Orinda is strictly a social gathering of Orinda Women, with the sole purpose of helping newcomers make new acquaintances in new surroundings. Regular meetings are scheduled for the third Wednesday of each month. Current activities are the afternoon and evening bridge groups, and a Saturday evening Couples Bridge Club when spouses, too, are entertained as newcomers.

Other events, seasonal in nature are also a part of the year's social pattern. This season, the activity program has been expanded to include Book Reviews and Garden Club sections.

Incumbent officers are Mrs. Arthur K. Flanagan, president; Mrs. Harold Scott, vice president; Mrs. Wilred L. Clearman, treasurer; and Mrs. Marvin Yost, secretary. Standing committee chairmen include Mrs. Lester Chaney, membership; Mrs. Harold Scott, activities; Mrs. John Hallenbeck, social; Mrs. Kenneth K. Wilde, publicity; Mrs. Jules Harrah, telephone; and Mrs. Roland Forster, year book.

The first meeting of the new season will feature guest speaker Mrs. Donald Krotz, a prominent civic leader "east of the tunnel" and at state levels. Mrs. Krotz will speak on women's activities in Orinda.

The Newcomers Club of Orinda invites all newcomers to Orinda within the past year to attend as guests any regular meeting or activity of the club. Inquiries may be directed to Mrs. Lester Chaney at DR 6-4448.

Classes Start

Saturday classes in Modern Dance, sponsored by the Valley Art Center, will begin Saturday, September 27. The classes will be held at the Lafayette Grammar School Auditorium in the following schedule: 9:45 a.m.—advanced fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades; 9:45-10:45 a.m.—workshop; 10:45-11:30, Intermediate third, fourth, and fifth grades; 11:30 a.m.-12:15 p.m.,

Swimmers To Meet

The best swimmers in Orinda will compete for honors in the second annual Orinda swim meet tomorrow and Sunday at Park Pool on El Toyonal.

Richard Schoner, chairman for the Junior Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of the event, said he expects about 250 participants in the two-day show.

Preliminaries will be held from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, and finals from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday.

Taking part will be representatives of Meadow, Sleepy Hollow, Oak Springs, Park, Moraga, and Orinda Country Club pools.

Parents Club Meets Monday

Miramonte High School Parents Club will hold its first meeting Monday night, Sept. 15, at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The program for the evening will be the first of a series entitled, "Let's Get to Know Your High School."

James Lewis, principal, will discuss study habits and grading policy. Robert Rowe, dean of boys, will talk about "Cars—Rules and Regulations."

Miss Naomi Giddings will speak on school policy regarding attendance. Mrs. deLanoux, supervisor of cafeterias, will explain the cafeteria system. The faculty will be introduced and will be available during the refreshment period to answer any questions regarding their classes.

The Parents Club board hopes that both fathers and mothers will attend this fall series of meetings (held the second Monday of each month) and become familiar with the operations and policies of Miramonte High School.

Firms Urged To Take Part

All business firms and organizations which want information about the Orinda Open House to be held October 3 and 4, may call Al Baer at the Village Shoe Shop, CL 4-2355.

"Every firm should take part," Baer said. "This is a chance for everyone connected with the Orinda business section to get better acquainted with our neighbors and the area we serve—and for our friends to get better acquainted with us."

Information can also be obtained from members of Baer's committee. They are Bob Woerth, chairman; Herman Silverman, Clarence Betz, Ed Armatrone, Stanley Allen, and John Ogden, chamber president.

To Sue Company For Larger Sum Is Still Question

Whether to accept an offer from the Bayshore Construction Company for trees felled on Pine Grove School property or sue the firm for a greater amount was discussed by the Orinda School District Board at a meeting Monday night.

The company offered $1806 for 16 trees felled by Bayshore on school land when it was clearing property owned by Associated Investment Company of Oakland. The amount was that set by a tree appraiser.

Acting through Deputy District Attorney Charles Hemmings, the school district had asked for $5,418, three times the assessed valuation, which Hemmings said the district was entitled to if the tree-felling was "willful."

The district decided to ask for Hemmings' advice on whether to bring suit for the greater amount or accept the settlement offered.

Hemmings told The Sun he would talk to school officials before deciding on how to advise them.

For the second time bids on the addition to the Glorietta School ran over the limit set by the State Allocation Board, which had approved amounts up to $129,699.

Without alternates, Ed Boff Construction Company bid $135,223; Von Guenther Construction Company $134,950, the lowest of five bids submitted.

Superintendent Joseph Sheaff was instructed to again call on the state board to see if adjustments could be made. Plans have already been revised once in an effort to come within the limit.

Sheaff reported that plans are almost ready for building on the Inland Valley School site. He was authorized to ask the board for permission to order grading started there.

Plans were also discussed for building on school property on the Wagner Ranch site owned by the school.

The rapidly-increasing enrollment in Orinda schools was indicated when Sheaff reported that the figure for the first day this year was 2977 as compared with 2625 last year.

Enrollment by schools was: Del Rey, 716; Glorietta, 578; Orinda, 574; Sleepy Hollow, 654, and Pine Grove, 555.

Carl R. Meurk informed the board he is moving from the area and will resign as a school trustee. His successor will be appointed by the county school superintendent.

The board approved an accident insurance plan which may be provided by parents for elementary school students. The plan is the same one in effect last year.

Glenn McNichols reported on the progress training study and on the summer school program. A report on the experimental class for children of high ability was made by Miss Peggy Rathert and Donald Mahler.

Baldwin to Talk

Congressman John Baldwin will speak at the third annual Junior Chamber of Commerce membership breakfast to be held at 9 a.m. October 4 at El Nido Restaurant.

100-Degree Heat, Rain Recorded

Hot weather and a trace of rain were included in the variety of weather provided for Orinda during the past week. Hottest day was Saturday, when the thermometer recorded 100, and the rain recorded the following day.

The highs and lows for the week were as follows:

	High	Low
September 4	88	51
September 5	98	50
September 6	100	49
September 7	86	64
September 8	80	57
September 9	78	52
September 10	76	61

"Y" Indians Go Camping

A group of "Y" Indian Guides from Orinda enjoyed a camping trip to Mt. Diablo last weekend. The Kitchawong tribe from Sycamore Hollow and the newly formed Adventurers (Senior Indian Guides) joined together on this outing.

These organizations are sponsored by the YMCA and foster father-son companionship. The Indian Guides are boys 6-9 years old and their fathers. The Adventurers are boys 9-12 years old and their fathers. There are 14 Indian Guide Tribes in Orinda.

More will be organized at a meeting to be held at the Orinda School October 9 at 7 p.m. The Orinda Nation chief is Bob Williams. CL 4-3878.

President of the Adventurers is John Harbell, CL 4-2289. Anyone interested in these organizations is invited to call Mr. Williams or Mr. Harbell.

Participating in the campout (hikes, baseball, campfire singing, etc.) at Mt. Diablo last weekend were: Pat Baker, Bob Wolff, Clarence Baker, James Campbell, Harry Clemens, Eugene Edwards, Bill Platt, Otto Schrader, Bob Williams, Al Wolfe.

Boys: Jim and Steve Babcock, Jimmy Baker, Jimmy and Steve Campbell, Scott Clemens, Loren Edwards, David Fayram, Buddy Grah, Stanley Majka, Jimmy and Bobby Platt, Don Schrader, Ken and Randy Williams, Dick and Steve Wolff.

Bull to Manage Oakland Agency

V. Craig Bull, C.L.U., of Orinda, has been named manager of the Oakland agency, Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company. The appointment was announced by Ralph J. Walker, Pacific Mutual vice president.

Bull, a native of Oakland, formerly was a special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, serving in Washington, D.C., Butte, Montana, San Francisco and Oakland.

He relinquished the post early in 1954 to seek election as congressman from the Sixth District, and subsequently was a committee chairman for Representative John F. Baldwin.

Parents Club Will Hold Tea

The Glorietta School Parents Club is holding its annual "Welcome Tea" this coming Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. at the home of the W. B. Christiansens at 19 Greenwood Court, Orinda.

Parents and teachers alike enjoy this opportunity to meet each other socially as the school year begins. Mesdames Odette Weatheren, Marian Rames, Ann Pollock and Mary Christiansen, with the help of the mothers of Mr. Lou Lafner's and Mrs. Ruby Quamman's sixth graders, and of Miss Martha Necker's fifth grade, who are serving refreshments, are working hard to make this year's tea a memorable one.

The "Welcome Tea" is the first event of a full year for the Glorietta Parents Club which was first organized last spring to replace the Orinda Mothers Club. From September 23 to October 7, room meetings are planned so that parents may become acquainted with the programs of their own children's classes for the coming year.

On October 15, at 7:30 p.m., John E. Clark, Glorietta's new principal will be the speaker for the first general meeting of the Club.

Church Women To Give Dinner

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Orinda, is again sponsoring a series of three book reviews by Mrs. Lloyd Truman, the first of which will be given on Thursday, September 18, 1 p.m. in Hill Memorial Hall, 12 Via Las Cruces Drive, Orinda.

The Women's Auxiliary Board will be hostesses for the first reading and tea, with Mrs. Sutherland Huston in charge. A baby sitter will be available for the care of small children.

Many interesting articles, both useful and unusual, will be on display, projects on which the various Guilds have been very busy at work. Come and do your Christmas shopping early. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Russell Gilwee, Clifford 4-5971.

The remaining two reviews will be on October 16 and November 20.

Curved Bar Girl Scout Award Presented Seven

Curved Bar—the highest award in Intermediate Girl Scouting—was awarded to the seven Scouts of Troop 128, Orinda, Friday evening at a court of awards at the Boy Scout House, Orinda Park Pool.

Sue Dunshee, acting as mistress of ceremonies, opened the program with a flag ceremony. Following the welcome to parents, friends and guest Troops, 38 badges were awarded, with each mother honored by assisting in their presentation.

Sandra Jones told of the activities completed in order to earn the conservation badge and called attention to the effective display on conservation, made by the Troop. Mrs. W. B. Dunshee made the conservation badge presentations.

Rowie Loughman explained the personal health badge, and Mrs. Norman Bailey, chairman of the Troop committee, presented these badges. A beautiful arrangement of shells and seaweed, collected by the Scouts doing the salt water badge, was exhibited, and Lynn Loveland told of trips to the beach.

Mrs. Charles Kersten presented both the salt water badges and the animal raiser badge. Joyce Bailey told about earning the sports badge and Mrs. W. C. Geandrot awarded the sports and swimmer badges. Awards in the adventure and drawing and painting fields were made by Mrs. Owen Jones, and Mrs. Gerald Loughman presented child care and good grooming badges.

Diane Kersten's enthusiasm for pioneering was most evident as she told about the pioneer camp held for two nights at Twin Canyon during July. "Our friend" the rattlesnake was on display, minus its head, of course, but the Troop prizes its skin and rattles as mementoes of an eventful campout.

Also shown were a lashed bay broom made by Joyce Bailey, and used to keep the camp tidy, and a lashed bulletin board by Diane Kersten and Lynn Loveland. The bulletin board was sewed to the lashed poles using a needle made of a bay twig.

Camp program, menus, and campers were pinned to the board.

whittled "pins." Probably the most unusual piece of camp creation was the lovely wall hanging woven on a primitive loom constructed by the girls.

BINDER TWINE was used for the warp and woven in the piece (12" x 30") were bay twigs and leaves, buckeye leaves, bark, bird feathers, and many kinds of weeds and grasses found about the campsite.

Everyone in camp had a part in the weaving so it was truly a Troop project. These three pieces—the broom, bulletin board and weaving—have been on display at the Audubon Society in Berkeley for the past few weeks. The pioneer and dressmaker badges were presented by the Troop leader, Mrs. M. W. Loveland.

Suanne Geandrot told of the requirements for earning the Curved Bar rank.

Joyce Bailey, Susan Dunshee, Suanne Geandrot, Sandra Jones and Rowie Loughman earned their Curved Bars in the "home" field. Lynn Loveland chose the "out-of-doors" field, and Diane Kersten had the required number of badges to claim her rank in either the home or out-of-doors field.

PRESENTATION of the Curved Bar pins was made by Mrs. Loveland who has guided the group for the past four years. She spoke of the Troop unit which developed among the girls, of their growth in the Girl Scout ways, and of their drive to achieve the high rank which was awarded them.

For the past year they have carried a double program—work toward the Curved Bar rank in the Intermediate program and a more active participation in the Scout program.

Sue Dunshee told of the wonderful time the Troop had in August—entertaining 13 New York Senior Scouts who, with their three leaders, were on a two-month tour from coast to coast. Colored pictures of the swim sport party were displayed. Mrs. Dunshee closed the court of awards ceremony and a gift, linking the personal health badge to Senior Scouting, by Suanne Geandrot. Sue Dunshee and Diane Kersten, was followed by refreshments.

AFS Committee Will Hold Fund Raising Campaign

Members of the Orinda American Field Service Committee met recently at the home of Mrs. Sig Groenings to discuss the calendar for the coming year, and to make plans for the annual fund raising drive, which will be held in October, a date to be announced later.

This drive is made each year by students of the American Field Service Club at the Miramonte High School. All contributions help to further the student exchange program at the local high school.

Officers of the adult AFS committee are: Mrs. Sig Groenings, chairman; Mrs. Frederick Wilmar, secretary; Mrs. Angus McLeod, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Erickson, treasurer; Mrs. A. D. Henry, hospitality.

The three new Orinda AFS "mothers" were introduced to the group. Mrs. James Lindsay, who is "mother" to Bridgett Hageli of Switzerland, and Mrs. Abe Doty "mother" to Tore Lindholm of Norway, both told the group that the two visiting students are busy at the present adjusting to their schedules at the Miramonte High School, where they are juniors.

Mrs. Weido Lancione, mother of Linda Lancione, who is Miramonte's first student to be sent to Europe under the AFS program, said that Linda has arrived at the home of her new family in Rouen, France, where she will attend school this fall and winter.

Attending this first meeting of the fall were the following committee women: Mrs. Robert Galbraith, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Sig Groenings, Mrs. Weido Lancione, Mrs. Abe Doty, Mrs. James Lindsay, Mrs. T. M. Mjika, Mrs. A. D. Henry, Mrs. Ord Tunnell, Mrs. James Lewis, Mrs. Frederick Wilmar, Mrs. Charles Erickson, Mrs. Will Lueker, Mrs. Ralph Hall, Mrs. Earl Hill, Mrs. Angus McLeod.

Dance Tonight At Miramonte

The Miramonte Parents Club is sponsoring a get-acquainted dance for the students tonight from 8 to 11. All students who have purchased a student body card will be admitted free.

Campaign Planned By GOP Women

The fall program for the Orinda Republican Women's Club, as outlined by President Rene Kennedy, promises to be a full one for the members and the community. The first general meeting of the season will be held on Thursday, September 18 and offers a very forceful and dynamic speaker, Caspar Weinberger of San Francisco.

Weinberger, a San Francisco lawyer, is a member of the State Assembly, representing the 21st district in San Francisco. Weinberger is chairman of the Government Organization Committee, and also as a member of Senator Knowland's campaign team. The topic of his address will be "What You and I Can Do to Help Elect Bill Knowland".

All interested people are invited to attend. The address will be given at Fellowship Hall of the Orinda Community Church and will follow a short business meeting beginning at 10 a.m.

Other events of interest are September 11, the John Baldwin-Sam Conti Rally to be held at 8 p.m. at Miramonte High School, featuring Mr. George Mardikian as guest speaker.

September 20—A fund raising barbecue to be held at the Gordon Ball Estate, Danville. Tickets may be obtained from Etta Hill, CL 4-5889.

October 1 — Vice-President Nixon will speak at the $100 dinner to be held at the Oakland Auditorium and sponsored jointly by the Republican Clubs of Alameda and Contra Costa County.

October 16—The general meeting of the Orinda Republican Women's Club will present a panel of members in a discussion of the pros and cons of the proposition and amendments to be presented on the November ballot.

Shoe Store Adds Line of Slippers

Al Baer today announced the arrival of a new line of slippers for the whole family at the Village Shoe Shop in Orinda.

The line is Welco Foam Treas Slippers, famous for "the walk that relaxes." Completely washable, they come in seemingly limitless styles.

Novelty styles for children include a kit of boots complete with cowboy gun and badge. Ladies' slippers are available, trim and glamorous, and there are plaids for dads.

Baer suggested, "Shop now for complete selection... there are only 98 more days 'til Christmas." Then he ducked.

Rotarians Hear Talk on Banks

The use of banks as executors of estates was discussed by E. W. Sack, head trust officer of the Bank of America in Oakland, at the meeting of the Rotary Club Thursday at El Nido Restaurant. Program chairman was Cliff Silvan, manager of Bank of America's Lafayette branch.

Plan for Opening Is Completed

is made with the existing, highway to serve the business district, and Ardrilla Road, the existing highway was reconstructed to four-lane standards without significant changes in alignment.

Relocation of high-voltage power line towers and construction of retaining walls were required in this section to accomplish the widening under very restricted clearance conditions. It was also in this section that a large slide occurred during construction of the main roadway fill as a result of the failure of the native soil under the heavy overload.

The failed area was stabilized by removing the weak material, installing a blanket of crushed rock to collect underground water and providing pipes to drain it to the creek which runs along the base of the new fill. The excavated area was filled with well-compacted earth of a character suitable to resist the load imposed on it by the new embankment.

AN EXTENSIVE SYSTEM of drains and culverts has been installed to convey storm water through the project. Drainage was complicated by the necessity of providing for several side creeks which flowed into San Pablo Creek and which were crossed by the new highway.

A considerable length of concrete ditch is provided along the road next to the shoulder to prevent erosion and to eliminate the costly and bothersome maintenance problems connected with unfilled ditches. The contractor developed special equipment to place and finish the concrete ditch lining quickly and efficiently, with subsequent savings to the County as reflected in the bid price for this item of work.

Payment consists of a nine-inch layer of heavy rock sub-base, a six-inch layer of crushed, high-quality rock for the base course, and a three-inch layer of plant-mixed asphalt and rock for the surface course. The layer thicknesses and types of materials were determined after analyses were made of the supporting power of the native soils encountered on the project, and they were also affected by the density and type of traffic which is expected to use the road.

AREAS WITHIN the traffic islands at the Orinda interchange were planted to achieve a pleasing effect. Cut and fill slopes on the remainder of the project were seeded with rye grass, barley and fertilizer to promote a growth which will control erosion during the rainy season and which will also serve to beautify the roadside area and provide favorable conditions to promote the growth of natural vegetation.

IN SPITE OF difficulties imposed by a severe rainy season, extensive relocation of public utilities and the necessity of providing for the free and safe passage of traffic through the work area at all times, the contractor completed the project well ahead of schedule.

Schools Attack Unification Problem

Bonds, Boundaries Are Unification's Biggest Dilemma

By DICK OSBORN

The long thorny road leading to unification of the Acalanes High School District and all elementary school districts falling within its boundaries was explored Wednesday night, and the consensus was that a lot more exploration is on the agenda.

The Committee on School District Organization, augmented, met at 8 p.m. at Acalanes High School to study a report prepared by the State Department of Education.

The report, which includes a detailed study of the Lafayette, Orinda, Moraga, Canyon and Walnut Creek Elementary School Districts, and the Acalanes High School District, explained the advantages of unification and outlined the means by which it could be accomplished.

STILL REMAINING unanswered at the end of the meeting, and up for primary discussion at the next meeting October 8, were these questions:

1. Should one unified district be formed—or should it be three, or even four?
2. What will be the exact method of retiring the bonded indebtedness of the individual districts should unification take place, and what will be the maximum repayment cost to any individual given taxpayer in any given district?

3. How can the projected assessed valuation of Moraga be ascertained, and what effect will the mushrooming growth of that area have on the eventual unification plans?

THE STUDY, being made under the direction of the Committee on School District Organization, comes as a result of the request of the Walnut Creek Elementary School District. The committee is composed of members from every area of the county, but in a study of this kind is automatically augmented to include the members of the boards of trustees of the school districts involved.

In this instance, unification would unite the Acalanes High School District and the elementary school districts of Walnut Creek, Orinda, Lafayette, Moraga and Canyon under one governing board and one superintendent.

The report, prepared by Floyd Taylor of the Bureau of School District Organization, State Department of Education, presented detailed figures on the financial status of each school district involved, compared enrollment figures, present and projected, and compared the proposed Acalanes Unified District with other existing unified districts.

IF THE DISTRICT were to unify now, it would approximate in size the Stockton Unified School District which has 19,387 elementary pupils and 3758 high school pupils.

One of the thorniest problems facing the group was the dilemma of what the proposed unified district would do about its outstanding bonds.

Three answers were suggested:
1. Leave the bonds on the existing districts.
2. Level the bonds.
3. Have the newly formed unified district pay rent to the component districts for the use of buildings equal to that necessary to retire outstanding bonds and pay the interest.

UNDER THE FIRST proposal, said Taylor, a new bonding capacity of 5 per cent of the assessed valuation is available for each level of education when a unified district is formed.

In a rapidly growing district, he added, this would mean, within a short time, double taxation for building new schools, for the property owners would have to pay off the bonds which were on the existing districts at the time of unification as well as new bonds voted by the unified district.

The second proposition, which received general agreement as being the most reasonable, would permit the voters of the unified district to assume the bonds existing against all of the component districts in the name of the newly formed district.

The third proposal, Taylor said, could also lead to double taxation for bonds because, the newly formed unified district would have to be bonded to capacity, or nearly so, before it would be eligible for state building loans.

The fly in the ointment on these proposals turned out to be the question of the rate at which bonded indebtedness would have to be paid.

UNDER PRESENT LAW, all school district pay off bonds at the approximate maximum rate of 40 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The question, which will be explored at the next meeting is this:

If bonds for the original districts must be paid off as well as bonds for the newly formed district, is the maximum approximate rate 40 cents or 80 cents?

If it is the latter, unification could be prohibitively expensive. If it is the former, it will cost no more to retire the total bonds than under present circumstances.

THE QUESTION of operating tax levies for the unified district, as compared to the cost of operating the present separate districts, was included in the report.

Dessert Party Is Tuesday

Plans for the 1958-1959 school year were discussed by the Alamo Mothers Club directors on September 3.

Mrs. Barbara Schlosser, president, opened the luncheon meeting at her home.

The officers for the coming year are Mesdames Schlosser, president, Arlene Kelly, vice president, Delane Sherman, secretary and Joyce Pell, treasurer.

Unified tax rate compares as follows to the combined operating tax rate for individual school districts and Acalanes High School District:

Unified district, $3.86; Canyon, $3.20; Lafayette, $3.96; Moraga, $3.47; Orinda, $3.90; Walnut Creek, $3.25.

Thus Lafayette and Orinda would save a few cents on the tax rate by unifying, while the other districts would pay a few additional cents.

Dr. Jack V. Shahbazian of San Ramon, chairman of the county committee, explained that unification "is not being stuffed down anybody's throat."

"THIS COMMITTEE can only recommend. It must then go before the voters," he added. "It is a long road, and there are many things that must be carefully examined. We have no preconceived notions, and we will study and report to the best of our ability. The final outcome will be up to the people."

The committee consists of 11 members chosen from throughout the county with B. O. Wilson, county superintendent of schools, acting as secretary.

In discussions of this kind, the committee is augmented to include the trustees of each school district involved.

Astronomical Society to Search for Satellites

The Mount Diablo Astronomical Society will begin its fall season tomorrow at 8 p.m., in building 4 at Diablo Valley College of the East Contra Costa Junior College.

The meeting is open to all those who are interested. Four members of the society will briefly review some current activities.

Dave Steinmetz will outline calculations, methods and procedures in locating U.S. satellites with 3 to 6 inch telescopes.

Moon-watch team observers, an activity of the Society, have seen the U. S. satellite, Alpha (Explorer 1), on four or five consecutive nights during August.

Using a fence of these larger telescopes the group hopes to pick up Epsilon (Explorer 4) and search for lost satellite Beta 1 (the rocket that launched the Vanguard grapefruit).

Don Charles will report on the annual convention of the Western Astronomical Association recently held in Pasadena. At the con-

Sunday School Resumes at Jewish Center

Sunday School at the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center resumed on the fall term last Sunday, according to Dr. H. Hirsch Cohen, Rabbi.

Plans have been made for a variety of activities for children from kindergarten age through the 10th grade. The center is located at 3800 Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette.

Workmen's Compensation Rates are Down

Workmen's Compensation Insurance rates for Contra Costa County have dropped to a low of 78 percent of basic rates, according to word received today by F. E. Emery, Director of Personnel from E. R. Howard, Manager of the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

Four years ago the County was paying 119 percent of the basic rates. This drop of 41 percent in four years is a direct result of the employee accident experience history of the county.

It has shown consistent improvement since the Accident Prevention Program, headed by Harold C. Baldwin, Training and Safety Officer, became effective.

Insurance Agents Pick New Officers

The Contra Costa County Association of Insurance Agents have announced the new slate of officers for the 1958-59 term.

Ted Winslow, Pleasant Hill agent, will head the association and Irv Magill, Walnut Creek agent, will hold the office of vice presidency.

The secretary-treasurer will be Charles Rossier of Antioch and additional board of directors members will be Bill Hockins, Danville, and Dave Wharton of Antioch.

Trev Burrow, executive secretary of the California Association of Insurance Agents, installed the new officers Monday.

Ann Gerald of WC Exhibiting Her Ink Drawings

Walnut Creek artist Ann Gerald and Oakland artist Irv Lockwood have been assigned to handle one-man exhibitions of paintings at the Oakland Artists Center Gallery, 324 Lakeshore, Oakland.

A new show opens at two-week intervals in the Ivory Room of the gallery, and the Misses Gerald and Lockwood will oversee the technical details in connection with the shows and their openings.

Miss Gerald, who lives on Alpine Road, Walnut Creek, graduated from Upsala College, majoring in English, and has a BS from Simmons College.

She studied abstract art with John Bowman and Ralph M. Pearson, and has attended the College of Arts and Crafts, Oakland, and trained at San Miguel Allende, Mexico. She works largely in ink drawings with a Flo-master pen, and in casein.

Scheduled for a one-man show at the Oakland Artists Center Gallery sometime next year, Miss Gerald will exhibit at the Richmond Art Center in their forthcoming 5th Annual Water Color, Graphic and Sculpture Show with a case in painting, and at the 10th Annual Invitational Art Show of the Valley Art Center.

She also participated in the 1958 Jack London Square Art Festival in Oakland, where her painting was selected for the Oakland Art Museum's rental gallery. Her work is currently on exhibition in the continuing members group show at the Oakland Artists Center Gallery.

Miss Gerald has visited most of the national parks of the west, as well as Hawaii, Mexico and Alaska, and once took a freighter around the world. She is presently vacationing in the east.

Currently showing at the Oakland Artists Center Gallery are paintings by John Bowman, well known east bay art instructor, painter and sculptor.

Cannon Home to Be Site For Art Pageant Benefit

The 1959 Pageant of Arts will benefit from what promises to be one of the season's most interesting affairs. The party will be held on September 28 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cannon, at the end of Henne Avenue, Alamo, from 2 to 5 p.m.

The beautiful pool which reflects the modern architecture of the Cannon home will be a fitting background for the avant garde type garden ceramics, tiles and totems of Hal Reigger of Mill Valley and Portland, Oregon.

Reigger's work was recently shown at the Richmond Art Center and will be exhibited at Gump's, San Francisco in October.

Complimenting this unusual display will be the entire collection of recent pastel paintings by Louis Gutierrez, brought home from his sojourn in Mexico where he won two scholarships in international competitions from the Instituto Allende, San Miguel de Allende, Gto., Mexico.

This will be the only opportunity to see this group of paintings in its entirety before it leaves the area.

After traversing the entry of the Cannon home where an unusual mosaic by Billy Justema hangs, one enters the hall where in addition to a painting by Justema paintings by Norman Rockwell, Alexander Brook, Eugene Speicher, Gerda Becker With, Maurice Vlaminck and John Carroll are displayed.

Three Heads by the well-known sculpture Beniamino Buffano enhance the living room with wood carvings by Emil Janel, three late nineteenth century paintings.

Regular gallery hours are 12-5 daily, except Monday; 12-8 p.m. Sundays. The Oakland Artists Center Gallery opened its doors for the first time this July for the purpose of exhibiting and selling the art works of local painters, sculptors and ceramists.

700 Students At St. Mary's

Approximately 700 young men will converge on this Moraga Valley campus the first of the week to begin the autumn semester at Saint Mary's College. Representing an increase of about 18 per cent over last year's enrollment, the new and returning students will require maximum use of the college facilities for the first time since the postwar boom of returning servicemen, according to Brother S. Albert, president.

Included in the influx of students are nearly 300 freshmen, some 53 more than in 1957, reflecting the national trend which indicates a doubling of college enrollments by 1967.

Episcopal

On regular fall schedule, Sunday services will be held at 8 a.m., 9:15 a.m. and 11 a.m., at St. Stephen's Episcopal church on Via Las Cruces in Orinda, with the Reverend Albert Lucas conducting with the assistance of the Reverend Andrew Daughters.

Dr. Lawrence Moe, temporary organist and choirmaster at St. Stephen's, will direct the choir at 11 a.m., their selections being "Onward Christian Soldiers" by Sullivan, "Grand Isle" by Hopkins, "He's Watching Over Israel" by Mendelssohn, and Wesley's "Aurora".

Appointment of a new choir-master will be made soon, last interviews being held this week. Donald Aird, St. Stephen's organist and choirmaster for over four years, resigned last month to study for his doctorate at the University of Southern California.

Ushers on Sunday will be, at 8 a.m., Ben Johnson; at 9:15, David Jones, Cecil Cantrell, James Dupuis and Wallace Thaw; at 11 a.m., Bill Arends, Ben West, Bill Shipley and Art Garwall.

First fall church school classes will be held at both 9:15 a.m. and 11 a.m., primary through eighth grade sessions being conducted at 9:15, and four-year-olds through eighth grade at 11 o'clock.

On Wednesday, September 17, St. Stephen's Cottage Groups will hold a pot-luck supper at 7 p.m. in Hill Memorial Hall. Designed to discuss religion and its application to everyday life, the Cottage Groups are open to any interested person. Seminar sessions are based on special publications put out by the Seabury Press, and members meet at private homes in small groups. Reservations may be made by calling Fran Wenrich at CLifford 4-4709.

On Thursday, September 18, at 12:30 p.m., Mrs. Lloyd Truman will give the first of her Fall series of book reviews in Hill Memorial Hall, under the sponsorship of the St. Stephen's Women's Auxiliary. Dessert and coffee will be served by the ladies of the Auxiliary Board. Child care will be available.

Swim Meet Set At Meadow Pool

High point scorer in the Valley Art Center's third annual open swimming and diving meet held Sunday at Powell Pool in Lafayette was 7-year-old Debbie Howell.

Christian Science

Recognition that true substance is spiritual brings individual growth and progress — this fact will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Christian Science Churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda; 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek; and in Concord at the corner of Grant and Park Street. Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill holds its services at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

Bible readings in the Lesson-Sermon on "Substance" will include the following (1 John 2:15): "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him."

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy includes this (239:16-18, 20): "To ascertain our progress, we must learn where our affections are placed and whom we acknowledge and obey as God. . . . The objects we pursue and the spirit we manifest reveal our standpoint, and show what we are winning."

The Golden Text is from II Corinthians (4:18): "The things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal."

Don't Let the Spoils System Return to Our Sheriff's Department!
RE-ELECT
Sheriff Harry A. Brown

Our Sheriff Brown has given us an honest and highly efficient administration. In addition, Sheriff Brown has returned to us taxpayers over $24,431.00 in Civil Fees that, under the Spoils System, Sheriff Brown could legally keep. This is the ONLY TIME the county has had all such Civil Fees returned to it.

Sheriff Brown's OPPONENT publicly stated in a public candidate's meeting at Acañes High School that he WILL KEEP SUCH FEES!

Expensive brochures, posed photographs and big signs cost money. Money that Sheriff Brown has returned to the people he serves. Citizens knowing the facts are asked to help.

THE COMMITTEE TO RE-ELECT SHERIFF HARRY A. BROWN REQUESTS YOUR SUPPORT IN HIS CAMPAIGN FOR RE-ELECTION TO THE OFFICE OF SHERIFF OF CONTRA COSTA COUNTY

Contributions to the campaign fund may be mailed directly to "Sheriff Harry Brown Fund, American Trust Co., Walnut Creek, Calif.

*An additional $12,168.49 in Civil Mileage Fees retained to operate Civil Cars and Sheriff's Car.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Don't Mean a Thing if You Ain't Got That Swing

You won't be surprised to learn that some of our most distinguished Daddies are the Hula Hoop Chumps, oops, typewriter slipped, correction, Champs of their neighborhood. Most of the ladies, however, modestly continue their practicing behind closed doors.

WE'LL TAKE the Hoop the way it originally was—back in Buster Brown's hey-day! A little stick to roll it along the sidewalk. Or up into the neighbor's new flower bed. So she'd bring out the candy dish just to get rid of you. Painted a pretty pastoral picture, it did—Pantalooned children and hoops and gentle green hills. Gone with the wind—like Mother Goose.

One thing for sure. The kiddies looked much cuter THAT way. MARIPOSA LANERS have a flag-raising ceremony all their own. Sunday night a red flag fluttered from the Frank Davenport's mailbox. Was replaced Monday morning with a pink one. Now as soon as Hope is settled cozily with daughter No. 2, the white flag will wave to welcome company.

COUNTRY CANVAS: Long-legged, lean and smiling blonde Laurie Hupp striding along El Toyonal in jeans and Keds and perched placidly on her shoulder, her pet red rooster, bob-bob-bobbin' along. Schoolgirls ALL breaking out in their brand new white buck shoes—the newness making the lassies look like a mob of Minnie Mouses and WHAT makes white shoes look SO BIG?

Our Mr. T-BONES Janda (who's currently cooking for the 49-ers) has a young son Donald who's darned good behind the wheel of the midget racing car but disappointingly lost out to a win recently during the Handicap when his foot-feed-wire busted in the 13th lap. When he wins, T-Bones, we expect to see a Lucky Horseshoe of (free) hotdogs hanging from your Chuck Wagon! Betty Broderick and son have taken up skin-diving, the recent frogmen flicker serving as their inspiration!

A Hot Time in the Old Town

IT WAS A LONG HOT WEEKEND what with the Big Grass Fire. And Saturday morning firemen were called to the Lucky Parking lot to put out a blaze burning in the back of a car when a can of combustibles decided to pop off. Then there was the long hot round of revelry and merriment at ALL those parties, big and little, noisy and quiet, EVERYBODY having company or going someplace. Think of all the husbands who were cajoled into collars and cuffs when all they really wanted was to curl up with a cool breeze and a beer. It was Too Much, Too Soon!

At the Linden Branch "Night in Paris" at the John Dorr's Saturday night. . . . Blazing torches leading up the long driveway to the spacious grounds dotted decoratively with people, bereted artists, Julia Hesse dancers, colorful flages and Parisian street signs.

UNDER THE EIFFEL TOWER, the Jack Blocks, who tomorrow night host a party for Jack's fellow members of the SF Breakfast Club and their wives, Elaine and Harold Oshley chortling in a group about their recent tenting-try up shivery Shasta way. . . . Rosita and John Boyen mentioning the Mexican Art Preview Night September 4, telling that the Tequila punch served at the posh affair was from a secret family recipe Rosita extricated from the pantry of her family's ranch outside Mexico City where she visited earlier summer.

ALONG THE CHAMPS D'EYSESS. . . . Chris Lang, sitting for a sketching, exchanging pleasantries with passers-by. Charles and Helen Gibbs buying tickets from Pat Whitehead and Julie Ann Smith, the latter all Polkadots and Moonbeams in a chiffon dress of moss green dolly-dots on white, cumberbund in green. Julie is ready for rushing and return to college at Oregon after a busy summer serving on I. Magnin's College Board.

A Jug of Wine, a Loaf of Bread, and How!

Nearby, under the spreading oaks, Julie's mother Ramona Smith greeting diners with a smile in spite of having spent those two HOT days with 30 pounds of fresh mushrooms, 75 pounds of veal. As did Barbara Graber and other culinary cleveries who were responsible for the delectable dinnermakings.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF IMPROVEMENT PORTION WARFORD MESA UNIT NO. 2

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 1st day of July, 1958, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa, California, adopted the Resolution of Intention wherein it did declare that in its opinion the public interest and convenience required, and that it was the intention of said Board to order the following acquisitions and improvements in and for said County, to wit:

(a) The improving of Bates Boulevard between Tract No. 2245, Contra Costa County Records, and the northern boundaries of Lots 116 and 176, Tract No. 2470, by grading and constructing therein Portland cement concrete curbs and gutters, crusher run base pavement with plant mix wearing surface, clay pipe sanitary sewer mains, water branches, house laterals and rodding inlets with standard manholes, and transite water mains, pressure reliefs, erosion controls, fire hydrants, valves and fittings.

(b) The improving of an easement between Lots 107 and 108 and between Lots 130 and 131, and Bates Boulevard and Southwood Drive opposite same, by constructing therein a concrete pipe storm drain with standard catch basins and junction boxes and inlet.

(c) The acquisition of all lands, easements, facilities and works, and the performing of all work auxiliary to any of the above and necessary to complete the same.

All of said work and improvements are to be constructed at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes, dimensions and materials, and at the lines, grades and elevations shown and delineated on the plans, profiles and specifications approved therefor by the Board of Supervisors of said County and on file for public inspection in the office of the County Clerk.

Notice is hereby given of the fact that in many cases said work and improvements will bring the finished surface of the improved streets to a grade different from the surface of such streets as they now exist, and that to said extent said grades are hereby changed and that said work will be done to said changed grades.

Said contemplated acquisitions and improvements, in the opinion of said Board, are of more than local or ordinary public benefit, and the costs and expenses thereof are made chargeable upon an assessment district, which district said Board declares to be the district benefited thereby, the exterior boundaries of which are the colorimetric exterior boundaries of Lots 100 to 116, inclusive, and Lots 176 to 191, inclusive, Tract No. 2470, Contra Costa County Records.

The estimated cost of said project is $158,400.00.

Notice is hereby given that serial bonds to represent unpaid assessments and bear interest at 10% per annum.

Dated: September 2, 1958.

Pouring coffee, member Marjorie Bush at a huge round table. . . . On IT, a big wicker-covered winejug and the longest loaf (9 ft.) of French bread we've ever seen, which, we learned can be ordered 2 days before from Colombo Bakery.

DINING ON the dining board, tables poolside all filled, Ted Snyder in animated conversation with Fran and Tom Connelly, Ronald Kersch, Member Charlotte Chapple, in black velvet, being warmly greeted on her 1st nite out after a long summer bout of bronchitis. Ditto for Eva Parker who has trimmed her tresses 'way back to there—and sported a bandeau in the Marcelle-manner as well as a Paris original, black and white with a peckaboo lattice-strapped back.

A FANCY FROSTED Cake for dessert being passed around by Esther and Harold Dornis of Lafayette. . . . Andy Hartanov sans Phyllis (Since last Saturday she's been having the temporary treat of breakfast in bed at Permanente, hope she's home now) and Lid and Kirk Mills tabled with medics and Messers Earl Montgomery and Charles Baker, the Montgomerys newcomers HERE from Omaha. Mary Dorr with that relaxed unrushed smile and word for everyone, her daughter Diana and some of HER contemporaries giving an assist to party chores.

ON THE DANCE FLOOR. . . . Elsie Harmon and Bert Wayne sharing a Waltz. . . . Jim Davison, ALWAYS in good humor, cooling off with his cuffs rolled up. . . . Member Emily Smith of Lafayette anticipating the arrival this week of friends from Norway. Evelyn and Lionel Sullivan introducing Phyllis and Robert Laborde of Lafayette who still had a block party to check into en route home.

The Laborers among the Lafayette families enjoying the final camp session at Berk. Tuol. Camp was fly-casting Jim Billings, the Grant Cottons, Donald Strains, Howard Proefrocks, Roger Almond of Orinda was on the Oakland Tuol. Camp Staff.

Arty Party for Smart Set

YOU DON'T have to go all the way to Brussels to see some of the work by local artists who were invited to exhibit there. And you can help the Valley Art Center speed up their museum building program. Work of outstanding fair exhibitors Lundy Segriest and David Park, as well as other noted artists will be on display at the Valley Art Center during the weekend. Tonight's preview for cocktails, refreshments and a panorama of paintings is $2.00 for a brace of heads (That's not the whole gang, just TWO of you!).

PAINTINGS, Sculptings and Hosaics will be represented by Jonathan Batchelor of Canyon, Edith (Dramateur) Dinkin, (she's currently in Carmel), Carl Kasten of Lafayette, Michael Czaja, Peter Blos of Berk, Blanche Brody, Teddy Gardner, Mildred Simon, Mary Bishop and Lefty Kilpatrick, all of Orinda. Put on your semi-bib 'n' tucker, comb your beard, tuck your pince-nez in your pocket and get arty, smarty! Show continues Saturday and Sunday 10 to 5.

Did you catch the Art Exhibit at the SAC State Fair? While being distracted by abstracts there Sunday we overheard one young man mutter as he hurriedly viewed the bright blobs of canvas. . . . "I have one name for ALL of these—Mess. M-E-S-S!" To each his own.

FUNNIEST STORY OF THE WEEK: Jack Behr tells it funnier, so ask him, he'll love it, but anyhow he was working on his new house 'way down at the end of Canon Drive when up wends a car and trailer and honest, so help him, it's true, the driver stopped, leaned out the window and hollered "Is this the right way to Bakersfield?" Jack is still somewhat stunned. But take a wrong turn, yep, it could happen. . . . the way things are.

PADDLING THEIR OWN canoes this summer were boys of Explorer Post 300 who even carved their own paddles as part of the preliminary training for the excursion by water on Quetico, Superior and Ontario after an outfitting with supplies at Ely, Minn. . . . Advisor Gerry Cullen was assisted by Bob Bowles, Russ Gilwee, Herman Pfeiffer. Fathers flew back while boys wound-up the summer at the Minnesota State Fair. Returning just in time for school were Senior Crew leader Bill Brown, Charles Pfeiffer, Rob Bowles, Steve Buell, Ed Owen, Bruce Johnson, Phil Stevens, John Rinne, Randy Thaman. More paddle-pros on the trip made possible by the annual Christmas tree sale were Richard Anderson, Rick Bowles, Alan Hill, Paul Pfeiffer, Mike Gatton, Sandy Corbett, Jim Gilwee and Dave Nelson.

LONNIE CURRIER, sister of Ardyce Handley will be one of the models during Ro-an's Festival of Fall Fashions and Luncheon at the Handley's Virginia Drive home next Wednesday. For this benefit for Booth Memorial Hospital call Ardyce for reservations. Oriole members and huddies party tomorrow at the Glorietta hacienda of the Addison Thompson's, cocktails, swims and steaks-to-order.

The Alfred Reids of El Verano have announced the engagement of their daughter Jean Ellen to Alan Richard Johnson, the betrothed pair both Juniors at COP. Tonight, the jewel in tulle at the Stephen Jensen's Charles Hill home will be their Deb daughter Stephanie who will be honored at the dancing party.

Guesting with Eugenie Pratt on La Bolita, the Jack Disks and Mrs. Disk's mother Mrs. Maude Pollett visiting here from North Hollywood. Over Memorial Day weekend Marian Nelson (recently returned from a Scandinavian tour via freighter and many foreign ports) was the Chaperone for the Fotog's Beauty Queen at the annual CAMForce up at Mather.

NOTICE INVITING SEALED PROPOSALS OR BIDS PORTION WARFORD MESA UNIT NO. 2

Pursuant to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913, as amended, and the resolution directing this notice adopted on September 2, 1958, by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa, said Board invites sealed proposals or bids for the grading and construction of pavement, curbs, gutters, sanitary sewer mains and appurtenances, water mains and appurtenances as more particularly described in Resolution of Intention adopted by said Board on July 1, 1958, which resolutions are on file in the office of the County Clerk and to which reference is hereby expressly made for a more particular description of the work to be done.

All of said work is to be done at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes and dimensions and of the materials, and to the lines and grades and at the elevations as shown and delineated upon the plans, profiles and specifications made therefor and preliminarily approved by said Board on September 2, 1958.

Payments will be made in cash by said County to the contractor on itemized estimates duly certified and approved by the Engineer of Work, based on labor and materials incorporated into said work during the preceding month by the contractor. There will be a delay in making such payments until money is received from the sale of the bonds issued upon the unpaid assessments. County shall retain ten percent (10%) of the amount of each such estimate and the accumulation of said amounts so retained from said progressive payments will be paid to said contractor 35 days after the completion and acceptance of said work by said Engineer and said County.

Notice is hereby given that on September 2, 1958, the Board adopted a resolution determining the general prevailing rate of per diem wages to be paid to the

Lois Owens Is Candidate For Queen Title at Ball

Mrs. Owen Owens, nee Lois Mulherin, of 26 Irving Lane, Orinda has been named as Acorn Branch's candidate for the queen's scepter at the Pageant of the Pacific Headdress Ball, which Children's Hospital of the East Bay Branches will stage Saturday, October 25 at the Hotel Claremont in Berkeley.

Mrs. Owens is the youngest of Dr. and Mrs. F. X. Mulherin's eight children. Born in Augusta, Ga., she attended St. Joseph's High School and Augusta Junior College, in that city and Fontbonne College in St. Louis.

An active member of Acorn Branch, Children's Hospital of the East Bay, Mrs. Owens also belongs to the Spinners and Dames of Oakland, the Santa Maria Women's Club of Orinda and the Catholic Social Service Auxiliary. Mrs. Owens and her family are members of Santa Maria parish in Orinda.

She is the mother of two children: Michael, two, and Maureen, one. An enthusiastic sports-woman, she likes to swim, and shares her husband's interest in automobiles, particularly sport models.

Mrs. Owens is associated with Owens Publications, and The Independent, Richmond.

Mrs. James Kramer is Mrs. Owens' campaign manager.

The queen candidate receiving the most votes—votes are being bought at 10 cents apiece with all money from the sale of votes and the October 25 Ball benefiting the hospital's charitable and research programs — will rule over elaborately beautiful festivities of the Branches' "Pageant of the Pacific," theme of this year's ball, for which Mrs. Lowell Trautman of Redwood Branch has again been named general chairman.

Persons interested in buying votes may secure them from members of the sponsoring Branch, or from the Office of the Branches, 731-52nd Street, Oakland.

Dance Class Will Begin In Orinda

Registration for all Orinda modern dance classes to be taught by Mrs. Lydia Robinson will be held Wednesday from 4:30 p.m. to 8 p.m., in the all-purpose room at Glorietta school.

Classes are designed for four-year-old through ninth grade levels, plus a class for adults which will concentrate mainly on figure control. About 400 students were registered in Mrs. Robinson's classes last year, and a similar enrollment is anticipated this season. Placement being made on a first-come basis.

Specific times for all sessions will be released through the schools early next week, the classes themselves beginning the week of September 22. Schools will include Del Rey, Orinda, Glorietta, Sleepy Hollow, Pine Grove and Orinda Nursery School.

Modern dance has become an increasingly popular cultural force in this area, as a dance form based on natural movements which produces grace, litheness and a trained sense of rhythm, and also beneficial effects in the way of good posture, increased imagination and ability to concentrate as well as physical improvement.

Lydia Robinson is a graduate of the University of California in the department of psychology, and last June received her master's degree in dance from Mills College for Women in Oakland, Calif. She has also studied in Europe.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Frederick Cook at Clifford 4-3701 or Mrs. Lydia Robinson at THornwald 1-4429.

Dinner Planned By Clipper Club

The Clipper Club of the Orinda Congregational Church will hold its annual progressive dinner Friday, September 19, at 6:45 p.m.

Courses will be served at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Chauncey Blossom, Estates Drive; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jackman, 250 Moraga Highway; Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, 29 Hacienda Circle.

The program, entitled "Sports Unlimited" will be presented by Dr. Ralph Hall and D. E. Hunter.

Young Says New Methods Would Mean Big Saving

Walter F. Young, candidate for county sheriff, said yesterday that saving of $250,000 can be realized for taxpayers of Contra Costa County through adoption of modern administrative techniques in the sheriff's department.

Young said methods in use in the department now are out of date, inefficient, and costly. A study by Young of procedures used in other California counties indicates that a newly-perfected methods can be used in Contra Costa without additional expense to local taxpayers.

The resulting quarter million dollar savings can be earmarked for replacement of antiquated facilities now used by the Sheriff's Department, Young said.

Even greater savings can be achieved by use of County-Owned property near the Juvenile Hall where modern departments could be housed adjacent to adequate parking areas, he said.

Young said he will also encourage leadership among sheriff's deputies in Youth guidance programs which are now established, but in many cases, lack adult leadership.

He said he is certain deputies will be willing to help Boy's

This Is A Bore, But A Badly Needed One!

It's time to talk about bottleneck's again, and we've got a honey! This particular bottleneck has recently been wired for sound, too, which makes it more pleasant, but it doesn't help relieve the congestion.

What is the bottleneck? The Broadway Low-Level Tunnel, of course. Let's start right off by saying it is a wonderful tunnel... certainly far better than the old one-horse tunnel which it replaced.

And we'd be in a heck of a fix without it. But it has become, like so many things, superannuated in a very short time.

OUR FREEWAY program in Contra Costa County, at least the central area, is going great guns. When the Walnut Creek Bypass is completed and the link between Lafayette and Orinda, the area will be in pretty good shape. We need only additional construction in the north Pleasant Hill area and between Walnut Creek and San Ramon.

But what happens to the traffic that funnels off these freeways into the Broadway Tunnel? It slows down, and you simply can't push it through faster.

The state has already announced plans for the ultimate construction of a parallel tunnel, and eventually, a Shepherd Canyon Freeway and tunnel.

The Diablo Highway Improvement Federation, which will appear before the State Highway Commission this month, will request priority construction of a parallel tunnel and the Grove-

Shafter Freeway on the west side.

WE CONCUR in this choice of priority construction. Our areas are growing rapidly, and many thousands of commuters use our highways each day.

Growth is not going to stop, and the need for this planned construction is already apparent.

Constructing a new bore through the range of hills is going to be an expensive and lengthy proposition. You can't build a tunnel that size a mile long over night. Conditions are not going to get any better while construction is in progress.

Therefore, the time to start work on the tunnel is now, so that it can be completed before the situation gets entirely out of hand.

WHAT CAN BE DONE? Plenty! Every organized group can join the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation, which has done a wonderful job, in making our wishes known to the State Highway Commission.

The commission handles the purse strings, and the old saying about the squeaking hinge getting the oil applies here, too.

Chambers of commerce, improvement and commuter groups and civic organizations should make their wishes known and join the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation in its efforts to get this construction started.

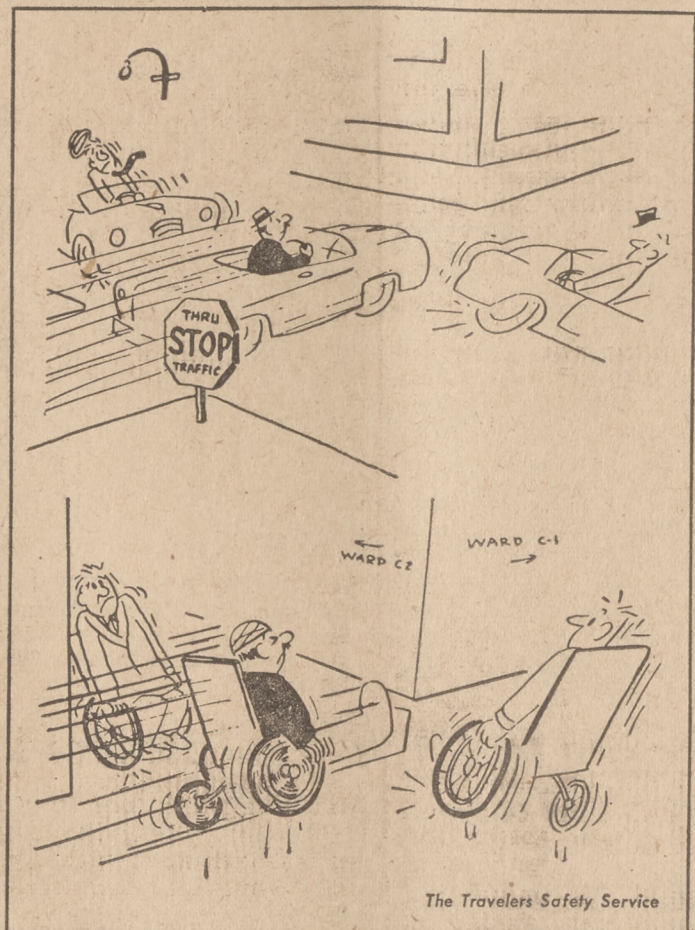

This is the month when the decisions are made. The time is short, and the time to act is now.

Adoption Group Plans Meeting At Paige Home

The Diablo Adoption Auxiliary has announced that "The Unmet Needs of Refugee Children" will be discussed at their next meeting, the first in the current year's activities. Also on the program is a report on "Parental Rights" by Mrs. Paul Byrne, Jr.

The meeting will be Wednesday at 10 a.m., at the home of Mrs. Harold Paige, 1212 Monticello Road, Lafayette.

The Diablo Adoption Auxiliary is a voluntary organization interested in all things concerned with adoption, and primarily in assisting the County Adoption Unit in any possible way. Persons interested in adoption, or in the Auxiliary or its work, are invited to attend the meeting, or to call Mrs. Jack Lynch or Mrs. Paul Byrne, Jr. for information.

Questions pertaining to adoption or adoption procedures may also be addressed to Question and Answer Service, P.O. Box 44, Lafayette.

Hansel-Gretel To Meet Again

The Hansel and Gretel Chapter of the Children's Home Society will resume activities after the summer recess with a meeting Wednesday of September.

The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. E. Rossi at her home on Silver Springs Road, Lafayette. Mrs. C. M. Knapp, Jr., newly elected president, will preside.

Fun-raising events for the year will include a series of lectures by Lorita Baker Valley starting in October, and a rummage sale in November.

A buffet luncheon will be served after the meeting.

Letters to The Editor

ZONING

DEAR EDITOR:

Neither in substance nor in form did the people of Oak Springs, Orinda, protesting against rezoning of their property before the Board of Supervisors in Martinez on September 2, receive the consideration they have a right to expect from their elected representatives. No one in the protesting party left Martinez with the feeling that their objection to rezoning for multiple dwellings had been seriously considered.

At a special meeting of the Oak Springs Homeowners Association on September 4, one of the supervisors was quoted as saying that the matter was already decided and that the formal announcement was only postponed because the supervisors "felt sorry for those people."

ORINDA is essentially a community of family homes in which children enjoy the benefit of an excellent school administration. Oak Springs is no exception.

The construction of a large number of motel-like dwellings is not suitable to the community character of Orinda. The fact that it would be adjacent to an already congested street, leading to the growing Oak-Spring Hill area and also adjacent to a vital natural watershed would make matters worse.

If such a beginning is made there is no reason to believe that an enterprising real estate man cannot find some choice locations for similar dwellings near the Orinda Country Club or anywhere else in Orinda. To all families in Orinda to whom the community means more than a collection of unrelated real estate projects, the "new look" of the Pine Grove should be a warning.

IF ORINDA is to continue its development as a wholesome family community the need for park and recreation areas in various sections of the community is self-evident. The area under consideration for multiple dwellings at the present time would be most suitable for development as a park. It is amazing, therefore, that the availability of such property for a park comes to public attention only after the property has passed through one or several speculative real estate deals and its price has become prohibitive. This was the case with the Pine Grove and now it repeats itself on Brookwood Road.

It would seem reasonable to expect that the East Bay Municipal Utility District, as a publicly owned enterprise, would first offer these properties to the various improvement clubs for community purposes or at least afford them an opportunity to bid for these properties at a well publicized auction.

In addition, there comes to mind the need of countryside master-planning with the welfare of families and children at top priority.

GOTTFRIED HESSE, MRS. CARL MILLER, MRS. ALBERT B. WOODS, FRED L. SKIMMEL, MR. AND MRS. GEORGE E. GRIESINGER, MR. AND MRS. R. O. BERT, GRIESINGER, MRS. LEE PETERSON, WILLIAM KAUFFMAN, MR. AND MRS. J. D. HALEY, JOHN G. EADIE, CARL C. MILLER.

Dear Editor:

Since Sputnik (and to a few more conscientious critics therefore) it has been increasingly apparent that the U.S. must encourage more high school students to take mathematics and science. My husband, U.C. Radiation Laboratory Chemist, felt that we should do something to help in this effort. He is now on his way to the Geneva Conference on the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy where he is probably, even now delivering a paper.

Ironically enough a letter from him from Geneva which congratulated his daughter on her plan to take four years of math in high school was being opened even as she burst in the door the second day of her Algebra II class considerably upset because her local high school teacher had advised that if his students were not straight "A's" students in the first two years of math they "might just as well drop the present course more advanced (but still rudimentary course) by the following Thursday (the deadline for dropping a course, penalty free). In addition, his attitude was interpreted to be an uncompromising "Learn! — I'm not here to teach students."

It is certainly true that many girls are not correctly motivated to take more than enough mathematics to be admitted to the university (one year each of Algebra and Geometry) and it is likewise admissible that many students have more difficulty in this area than languages (again, particularly girls, as evidenced by the records from standardized tests in file in every high school).

However, it is not the policy of the Acalanes High School district, nor of local elementary schools openly at least, to maintain segregated classes. We have tried to understand and support this policy ever since four wheels have ground to a complete stop while this same girl has been taught seventh grade grammar in high school for two full years so that others (and some of these notably A students in math) could be "reviewed" or "dragged along a bit."

"Ability grouping" is not present administration policy either in math or in English classes. This may be the fundamental complaint; I agree it is. But until this made possible in the English department formally, it should not be made possible sub rosa in the math — or any other department. "Getting rid" of all but the gifted is not what our scientists

War Headlines Change Our Policy for Today

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

It has been the firm policy of The Sun NOT to discuss national or international affairs. It is not because we lack opinions on the subject or are unwilling to take a stand. It is because our job is to cover our community, news on the local level.

Today, however, I am going to break our longstanding policy for this column. Why? Because last night I suddenly became frightened at reading the foreign news. I suddenly realized that within an hour or a day the United States could be plunged into a war with red China and Russia—a dreadful, disastrous, nuclear war.

We're on the spot

The U.S. has by its own policy, placed itself in an untenable position in the Formosa crisis. Read some of these paragraphs from the news stories:

"Dulles emphasized the firm U.S. military position in the Formosa Strait area. He warned red China bluntly that if communist Chinese gunfire deliberately hit U.S. vessels in the straits, U.S. ships would respond. . . .

"Dulles confirmed that he was the 'high official' who said last week that the U.S. would help Nationalist China repel any attempt to invade Quemoy and Matsu islands, if Nationalist forces could not handle the matter by themselves. (Later Dulles said no definite decision on this had been made.)

Russia states its position

President Eisenhower, VACATIONING in Rhode Island, worked on a reply to Khrushchev who this week threatened that an attack on red China would be considered an attack on Russia.

"In London, diplomats said Russia's blank-check endorsement of red China's adventures—if made good—effectively gave Peiping the power to choose between war and peace.

"At one point in an interview, Dulles said the dispute between red China and Nationalist China has elements which could lead to an international war. He said the U.S. has neither asked nor received any assurances from allies that they would support the U.S. if it got into war with red China. He added he did not believe there would be a war if the U.S. stands firm."

A dangerous approach

What does this all mean? Well, you can readily see this is a "calculated risk" policy of Dulles and Eisenhower, which takes the decision to make war away from the Congress and the Administration and hands it to the Chinese communists. Thus, we face a terrible war over a few unimportant islands located within three miles of the Chinese mainland. These could not be defended successfully if the communists want to take them.

Certainly we should take a strong stand when it is necessary. I do not believe in appeasement. But the U.S. should be in position to determine when and where—and not the "enemy." I believe that Dulles is playing a foolish, one-man game of outguessing the enemy.

This means that we could be in a war today—or next week.

Deadline Nears On contest To Influence Home Styling

Contra Costa housewives will turn their hands to house styling in the next few weeks and what they come up with may have an influence on home building.

Jack Eyman, president of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, explained that the women will "draw blueprints" by answering a questionnaire on housing which will reveal their preferences on both design and finishing touches.

The questionnaire is an accompanying feature of an essay contest on "What I Want in My New Home," being sponsored by the General Contractors Association. The winner will get an all-expense-paid trip to Washington to attend the Women's Conference on Housing, to be held in the capital October 14-16.

Eyman said the questionnaire

'New Home' Essay Contest Judges are Announced

Judges to determine the winners in the essay contest in "What I Want in My New Home" being held by the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, were announced today by Frederick C. Kracke, executive vice president of the association.

The winner of the essay contest will attend the Women's Housing Conference to be held in Washington, D.C. October 14-16, with all expenses paid.

"Judges from throughout the county were selected at the suggestion of the Public Relations Committee, headed by Freeman House of Walnut Creek, to assure that all areas of the county would be represented," Kracke said. "Our Association is most gratified with the acceptance of the individuals who will serve as of traffic signals on the new Orinda Highway.

I am in complete agreement with The Sun's editorial and wish to also suggest some traffic control system or overpass at the intersection of El Tiroyal and the new highway. In my opinion, this intersection not only poses a distinct threat to the lives of school but to anybody trying to cross the new highway, either from the El Tiroyal side or from the old Orinda Highway Bridge.

I am writing you this letter in my official capacity as president of the newly formed Orinda School Parents Club. (Juvenile Court, City and County of San Francisco)

However, you will note the letterhead, which should indicate to you not only a genuine interest in children's welfare but a real concern for their health and safety.

Sincerely yours,

Back to Mining Salt...

By DICK OSBORN

Just a few notes from a vacation-weary reporter as he shows up all bright-eyed and bushy tailed for work again.

First thought that comes to mind: Vacations are pretty nice stuff. Must remind boss to get in habit of passing them out regularly.

Second thought that comes to mind: Sure is hot in this office. In fact, hear that it has been hot all over area for the past couple of weeks. (Where I was it was so cold that you didn't even dare take a bath.)

(Oh yes, for those of you who might have been thinking of dropping in at The Sun office, I have had several baths and showers too since returning. I'm not half safe!)

STARTED THINKING: Returning from vacation is wonderful experience in itself. Had to start paper again... it had gotten fouled up. The paper people (not the ones made out of paper, the ones who distribute the newspaper) thought I had moved away permanently. Couldn't have that. Did you ever hear of a newspaperman who didn't read newspapers? Heresy.

Got it straightened out. Also caught up on one whole week of Charles Schulz' "Peanuts" without which could not live. Glad to report, am now living again.

Dropped in at Orinda to pick up some cleaning left at cleaners a month or so ago. Found community still there with much progress being made on roads and things since I left town. Can't understand how they did it without my help. Remind self to investigate.

SAIL HELLO TO half-dozen friends in Lafayette as passing through. Very glad to see me, back, they said, after I had found them hiding in various back rooms.

Repeated process in Walnut Creek as stopped to pick up copy of J. D. Salinger's short stories to cuddle up in bed with. (Now there's a sentence for you!)

Got book. Unearthed more friends. Party got started. I must remind self to get around to reading the book. After all, it's paid for.

Said hello to teacher-type friend in Pleasant Hill. Looks haggard. Know why. School has started. Tell him it's a tough world, but that's the way it is. Am glad he looks haggard, personally, because it sign he worries about the kids, which is why he is good teacher type.

THREADED WAY carefully through construction work at Walnut Creek bypass. Noted to self, that having been gone for couple of weeks, they could have dug nasty mean open trench across my accustomed route.

Found they hadn't. Breathed sigh of relief and noted that they had built about six more bridges since I left town. Faster even than the Orinda construction people. Without my help, too. Must stop this trend or will find self dispensable. Can't bear the thought.

Find, in office again, that typewriter fingers are stiff. Still hold position as if frozen around handle of fishing rod. Can't understand it, after all those baths and all, to limber up.

FIND PILES of work to do. Find self thinking about Golden Trout. Work piles up. Trout don't materialize here like they did in mountains.

Make mental note to check with doctor and dentist buddies who went fishing with me. Willing to bet they feel same way.

It'll be a long, cold winter!

Wives of Engineers Plan To Take Part in Meeting

The Northern Section of the Structural Engineers Association of California has chosen the "Around The World In Eighty Hours," to coincide with the three and one-half days that the members and their wives will be at attendance at their annual convention to be held at the Alhambra Hotel, Yosemite National Park, October 2, 3, and 4.

William E. Dreusike, general chairman, announces that a series of surprises are being planned for the conventioners. While the engineers are attending technical sessions, interesting entertainment is being planned for the women, according to Mrs. Victor R. Sandner, ladies activities chairman, and Mrs. Theodore E. Newman, vice chairman.

On Thursday afternoon the ladies will enjoy as their first event a well-established English custom, directed by Mrs. William W. Moore and assisted by Mrs. Leslie Graham.

Those presiding will be Mesdames Henry J. Degenkolb, J. Albert Paquette, Joseph Sheffert, A. L. Brinckman, Burr H. Randolph, B. P. Weintz, and J. F. Meehan. Friday morning, mountainous Switzerland will be the setting for an enchanting party arranged by Mrs. Thomas W. Power, Chairman, and Mrs. Jack Y. Long, co-chairman.

The highlight of the ladies activities will be a luncheon and fashion show Friday afternoon. The setting is Japan—Engineers' wives will promenade the table-lined terrace modeling original creations designed from imported fabrics. This spectacular event

Club To Hold Art-A-Rama Next Week

Art-A-Rama is again going to Concord.

Mrs. Everett Grove, chairman of the Fine Arts Committee of the Mt. Diablo Junior Women's Club, announced that this year's Art Show will be held September 19 and 20 at the Concord Shopping Center. Sponsors of the show are the Concord Shopping Center and the Mt. Diablo Junior Women's Club.

This year artists and craftsmen will be able to compete for cash awards in the categories of Oil, Watercolors, Photos, Drawings, and Art Crafts.

Two sets of prizes will be awarded.

One set will be awarded by selected judges, while the other set will be awarded by popular vote.

In addition, specified hours of each day show will be set aside for Art-In-Action, with a cash award of $15 awarded each day by popular vote. All craftsmen and artists are invited to compete in this activity.

Entry blanks are available at Wayne's Stationery in Concord Shopping Center. There is an entry fee of $1 for each artist or craftsman participating. Further information may be secured by writing Post Office Box 394, Concord.

On the committee are Mt. Diablo Junior members Mrs. Everett Grove, Mrs. Lewis Thornton, Mrs. Antonio Silva, Mrs. Ben Strickland, and by Betty Pleshe, well known local artist.

All of the colors and gaiety of the gay 90's will blossom forth again tomorrow night—for the "Lombardy Branch" of the Children's Hospital will be presenting "Barbary Coast Night" at the Orinda Country Club.

This annual dinner-dance, which is held on the lawns surrounding the pool, is always a treat to attend and we wouldn't miss it for the world! Then, on the following Monday, these busy gals are sponsoring another "Play of Hands" bridge course which will continue for a 10 week period.

Well known Mrs. G. William Files will again instruct the series at the Orinda Community Church. If you're interested (and who isn't, these bridge-filled days?) call Mrs. William Young at CL 4-3507.

A Week in Sunny Carmel . . .

Billy and Don Campbell and their two older daughters spent a week or so "doing" Santa Cruz, Monterey and Carmel. They headquartered at the "Casa Munras" hotel and soaked up as much sun and sea air as possible. Nine month old, "Andy" reclined at home with her grandmother.

Also in Santa Cruz were Niel Klitgaard and her sister, Jan Poulton, who took their children and their mother, Mrs. E. Sykes along.

Mary and Bill Whitnell of Lafayette headed south to see that their freshman daughter, Lynne, was safely enrolled at the Santa Barbara Campus. So—according to Billie Campbell—another good baby sitter "hit the rust."

Betty Caldecott, who is an occupational therapist at the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, has returned from a two week's vacation in southern California. Betty spent some time in La Jolla where she stayed at the "Hillside" overlooking the blue Pacific. In Laguna she attended the Art Festival which was held in a theatre in the hills.

The Arthur Commerford and their daughter, Jill, have been visiting the Joe Brillo family in Seattle. Jerry Brillo is the Commerford's oldest daughter.

Here's that rummage again . . .

The "Larks" will be actively meeting again in a few weeks and their first order of business will be to organize an annual rummage sale. They've been using the Girl Scout building in Lafayette for storage and hope to have it well filled by the October selling date.

Georgine and Les Malloy are again in the Islands where Les is recuperating from a back operation. One fine Monday they thought it would be nice to head for Hawaii so the very next day the Malloys caught a train for Los Angeles and boarded the Lurline that night. May not be back until early October—pretty soft, I'd say!

Speaking of Hawaii, the Walnut Creek Jayceettes Luau at the Meadowbrook Country Club was one "whopper" of a success. Members and guests "went Hawaiian" and the results were most colorful. The arrangements were made by the Mmes. Harry Kindorf, Robert Williams and Cliff Gambis. The "Flamingos" have started their Christmas Card Parties again with the first being held at Mrs. Ruby Terry's home and the second at the home of Mrs. Charles Bowers. Guests are invited to "drop in" at any time of the day and are provided with delicious refreshments as they thumb through the many portfolios of cards. All of the profits are turned over to the Therapy Center and last year's results were astounding.

Swimmers Gretchen and Bev Blumberg represented Pleasant Hill at the huge "Far West Swim Meet" at Fleishacker Pool and did themselves proud. The Blumberg family vacationed in Northern California preceding the meet.

The Norman Gibsons, who own a lot at Clear Lake, transported their cruiser to sail and spent some happy days anchored near the site of their future summer home. Young Gail and Bob were along, of course. The Gibsons also spent a week visiting with Norman's sisters in southern California. Sue and George Bruns Jr., combining business with pleasure, spent a week in Los Angeles.

And a summer garden party in Orinda

The Jack R. Wallace home was the setting for such a lovely "Garden Party" given by the Orinda Women's Club. The Lanai Room, which was tropical in decor, was the central gathering place for the many guests. Jan and Henry Soubielle (she was the chairman and wore a stunning navy blue, white-trimmed frock) were busy, busy as they made sure that all was well. Kay Wallace, who greeted guests at the door looked THAT smart in an all white sheath. Lorrie (Mrs. Ed) Patterson was a dream in a pink and watermelon shaded, high-waisted Empire creation and Jeanne (Mrs. Miller) Rys was equally "dreamy" in black velvet.

One of the most dramatic costumes was worn by Jane (Mrs. Robert) Lester. She had found the orange, semi-trapeze frock in Chicago. Jean and John Barclay were there sporting the most gorgeous tans. Jean and her daughter recently took a first place award, as a team, at a Sleepy Hollow swim meet. And, probably causing the most comments, there was Eleanor Funk, who wore a sensational black cocktail dress plus rhinestone-trimmed seamless nylons. A few couples also attending were the H. D. Du Bois, Clint Scariches, and Bill Cannons.

And then there was the always fabulous annual Pandora party—this year labeled "Caribbean Holiday." The garden and pool terrace at the Albert McCann home in Sleepy Hollow was transformed into a gay bit of Jamaica for the evening. Flaming torches, masses of flowers, flower stalls, coral and fishing nets, straws of the British West Indies and the Calypso music of strolling musicians formed the background. Members were distinguished from guests for they wore native costumes and flamboyant headdresses. Two lucky guests were awarded two days and nights at the "Sahara" in Las Vegas. Some of those attending were the Vernon Axelsons, Jack McCorkles, Robert Hendricks, James Andersons, Lester Geases, Dwight Skaggs, Joseph Longs, James Lamberths, Jack Frasers, Albert deGrassiss and William Douglass.

The Cardinal Unit held a special meeting at the Buckeye Ranch where members were the guests of Mrs. Dan Arena. The meeting was called to complete the plans for their project to be held at the Walnut Festival. Afterwards the gals enjoyed a refreshing swim.

A fun-packed day on the bay

Evert, Carol and Brenda Hodges, along with members of the West Berkeley Lions Club and guests, spent a fun packed Sunday at the Frank Spenger home at Tamales Bay. Mr. Spenger hauled in an 800 foot net for the pleasure of children and adults alike, especially when the catch included several sharks and a stingray. There was water skiing, a tour of the bay on a magnificent yacht and steaks barbecued as only "Lions" can.

Visiting Joan and Rob Donnachi for the past three weeks was Joan's sister from Canada—Mrs. William Paluh and her three children. This was their first visit to the United States and, of course, there was lots to see. Joan held a coffee party to introduce her sister to many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Arena have had a very charming house guest, Mrs. Robert Meyers from New York. She is a typical New Yorker and was quite taken with our "country" living. Mrs. Ridgeway Woodburn held a luncheon honoring Mrs. Meyers at her beautiful home in Danville. Following lunch the guests enjoyed relaxing around and in the pool.

Vacationing at the Town and Country Lodge at Lake Tahoe were the Pete Petersens and their two children. One week-end they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marino.

All found that this Lodge was THE perfect spot for enjoying the luxuries of a heated pool and still have access to superb boating.

Sandra Joan Gibson Is Now Mrs. John E. Gatts

Now at home in Alameda are Mr. and Mrs. John Evans Gatts, who were married August 24 in the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the former Sandra Joan Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don T. Gibson of Lafayette. She is a graduate of Acalanes High School.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gatts of Alameda, graduated from Alameda High School and is now a student at Oakland City College.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a bouffant ballerina gown of champagne lace with a scooped neckline and a bubble skirt with a harem hemline accented by satin bows over ruffled nylon. Her veil was elbow length with a pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. Maid of honor was Judy Gibson, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, who carried bouquets of yellow roses, were Coleen Gibson, another sister, and Sharon Parker of Esparto, the bride's sister.

Best man was Robert Preston of Oakland, and ushers were Steven Parker of Esparto and Richard Emery of Lafayette. Soloist was Mrs. Lucca Fredman, who sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride's mother wore a rose taffeta afternoon dress with a corsage of white orchids, and the groom's mother wore navy blue chiffon with a corsage of white orchids.

The church was decorated with a bouquet flanked by candelabra beneath the cross, and aisle hangers of white chrysanthemums.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride.

Bridge Lessons Start Monday

Lessons in Goren point count bridge, sponsored by Lombardy Branch, Children's Hospital of the East Bay, will be given at the Orinda Community Church beginning Monday.

There will be two classes: a beginners' series and a play-of-hand series. The beginners' series will meet from 12:30 until 2 p.m. The intermediate and advanced play-of-hands will begin at 2:30 and run until 4 p.m.

Mrs. William G. Files, well known to bridge players, will be the instructor.

AFTER THEIR HONEYMOON in Carmel, Mr. and Mrs. David Heltman plan to live in Walnut Creek. The bride is the former Susan Elizabeth Paine of Walnut Creek. The ceremonies were held in the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church. — Ted Gurney Photo.

Group Sponsors Lecture Series

Hansel and Gretel Chapter of Children's Home Society to further the Children's Home Society of their work in child adoption. California is again sponsoring a Mrs. Valley's series of lectures by the renowned lecturer and series in Oakland last year that it book reviewer, Lorita Baker Valley, was unanimously voted to bring her back for the 1958 series.

4186 Piedmont Avenue, Oakland, at 2 p.m. starting October 8.

All proceeds from these lectures will be turned over to the Children's Home Society to save money.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING anniversary was observed last Friday by Mr. and Mrs. S. Maurice Underhill with a reception at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Underhill. The senior Underhills have been residents of Lafayette for 15 years. —Sun photo by Dave Ogden.

Heidi Chapter To Hold Benefit Party At Club

Heidi Chapter of the Children's Home Society held its first fall business meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Theodore J. Clark, 1070 Laurel Drive, Lafayette. Mrs. Glenn Stubbfield presided in her new role as president. Hostesses were the Mesdames John Bauer and Allen Seibert.

Important business included the big fall fashion and luncheon to be held at the Castlewood Country Club on October 16. Mrs. J. L. Hicks is general chairman of the Tenth annual affair for the benefit of the Children's Home.

Mrs. E. M. Matson, decorations chairman for the party, has been having work groups through the summer, and some 200 dolls have been dressed for use as table decorations for this year's event, themed "Through the Looking Glass."

Mrs. O. D. Hayes, surprise gifts chairman, has also had work groups sewing aprons to be used along with the surprise gifts, always a popular part of the Heidi fall party.

Other chairmen appointed by Mrs. Hicks are the Mesdames J. Wayland Barnette, fashion show; Andrew Young, tickets; Gilbert Myers and G. A. Squires, models; Robert Lockey, seating; Charles Morrill, programs; Theodore J. Clark, publicity; Sally Lassagne, procurement and Ledru Frank, benefit.

Officers and chairmen starting duties with Mrs. Stubbfield for the new year will be the Mesdames J. L. Hicks, vice president; Ledru Frank, corresponding secretary; Charles Morrill, recording secretary; Andrew Young, treasurer; James A. McCormick, parliamentarian; Gilbert Myers and G. A. Squires, cards; R. G. Falk, historian; E. M. Matson, hostesses; Robert Lockey, junior past president; Sally Lassagne, magazines; George Pedersen, membership; Theodore J. Clark, publicity; Earl Plescia, sewing; Fred Costello, telephone; Jack Campbell, volunteers; J. M. Brown, ways and means and Arthur Siefert, welfare.

Committee Seeking Help For School for Retarded

Ways of keeping open the Helen S. Lucas School, threatened with closure because of the illness of Mrs. Helen Lucas and Mrs. Emma Bailey, school director, are being studied by a committee formed under auspices of the Council for the Retarded of East Contra Costa County.

Located on Railroad Avenue in Lafayette, the school is described as "a haven for retarded children for the past 23 years" by Mrs. Gwen Armstrong, one of the members of the committee.

The school, she reported, must sell out to either real estate developers or to someone who can take over the school and continue it.

"There is a definite shortage of schools for the retarded in our area as well as others across the nation," she said, "and an even greater shortage of schools that are considered excellent."

She noted that members of the staff at the Helen S. Lucas School are "dedicated to their work and loyal to the school."

Neither the staff, children many of whom have been at the school more than 10 years, nor parents want to see the school discontinued, Mrs. Lewis declared.

She pointed out that many parents "searched the state over before finding what they were seeking."

Members of the committee working on the problem of perpetuating the school are Terry Haws of Lafayette, chairman; Jack Clifton, Walnut Creek; Albert Blitt, Pleasant Hill; Ralph Trost, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. Armstrong, Lafayette.

Sun Society Captain's Dinner, Dance To Be Held on Shipboard

The S. S. Leilani will be taken over by Rowan Branch for the night of Saturday, September 20, when the Children's Hospital of the East Bay Branch will entertain a "passenger list" of over 500 friends of the hospital at a gala Captain's Dinner and dancing party, for which Ray Hackett's orchestra will play.

Due to sail the next morning for Honolulu, the Hawaiian Traction passenger liner will be berthed at Pier 44 on The Embarcadero, and the gangplank will go down promptly at 7 p.m. to take aboard the Rowan Branch party guests. Both the Land Kai on the sun deck and the Orchid Dining Salon on the promenade deck are being opened for the shipboard dinner dance.

Mrs. William Betts, chairman of the hostess Branch, has asked Mrs. John Grubb and Mrs. Thomas Robertson of Piedmont to head the committee on party arrangements.

Mrs. Donald C. Bentley of Berkeley and Mrs. William ORCHISON OF ORINDA are in charge of ticket sales for the affair, which will benefit the hospital's program of part-pay assistance for needy children.

Also assisting with arrangements for the shipboard gala will be the Mesdames, William Farnsworth, Thomas Greenleaf, William A. Kinney, John P. Symes Jr. and Thomas Swartz.

Reservations have already been booked by the Messers and Mesdames Peter Zischke, Patrick Elvidge, Grovesnor Bryant, Richard C. Frost, Frank Anderson, Donald Bentley, William Betts, Wallace Breuner, Phillip D. Chapman, Edward W. Engs, William Farnsworth, Norman Fox, Burton L. Grant, and Thomas Greenleaf.

The John Grubbs, Gale Harries, RONALD HUBBARD, William A. Kinneys and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Masters Jr. are also on the purser's list for September 20, as are the John McCullochs, ERIC NIELSEN, William Orichson, Norman P. Poles, Charles Zook Sultans, Thomas Swartzes, Albert Tornlofs, Douglas Tyters, Theodore Westphals and Mr. and Mrs. John P. Symes Jr.

Susan Paine Married To Dave Heltman

Susan Elizabeth Paine of Orinda was married August 30 to David L. Heltman of Walnut Creek, in the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church.

The couple honeymooned in Carmel, and will live at 1170 Lincoln Avenue, Walnut Creek.

Rev. William Mays of the Mission Covenant Church, Lafayette, performed the ceremony.

Susan was dressed in a charmingly lace gown with net oversatin. The Italian neckline was outlined with seed pearls, and the gown had long sleeves. The fingertip veil had pearls scattered through it, and the crown was of charmingly lace and pearls.

Susan carried white carnations, stephanotis and a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Kathryn MacLeod, and the attendants were Carol Biesel, Barbara Williams and Jan Heltman. Jane and Jacqueline Davis were the flower girls.

Jack Lee of Orinda was the best man. John Winrod, Rodney Eslinger and Richard Benson were ushers.

Susan was given away by her father. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rees D. Paine of 8 Owl Hill, Orinda. A reception was held in the Paine home and garden.

She is a 1958 graduate of Acalanes High School.

Mr. Heltman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Heltman of 81 Carolyn Court, Walnut Creek. He graduated from Acalanes High in 1956, and after service in the U. S. Army, is attending Diablo Valley Jr. College. He is preparing for entrance into California Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo and studies in mechanical engineering.

Wilshusen, Schuppert Plans Told

The engagement of Miss Betty Carleen Wilshusen and Donald F. Schuppert, both of Walnut Creek, was announced this week.

They plan to be married on December 21. The future bridegroom is serving with the U. S. Air Force, and will be stationed in Arizona for two years.

Miss Wilshusen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilshusen of 440 Bridge Road, Walnut Creek.

She is a graduate of Las Lomas High School, and attends Diablo Valley Junior College. She is a member of Rainbow Girls Assembly 84.

She is the granddaughter of R. D. Wilshusen and the late Mrs. R. D. Wilshusen of Sealing, Okla., and Mrs. Paul Poetsch and the late Mr. Poetsch of Rainier, Oregon.

Mr. Schuppert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Frank Schuppert of 112 Grover Lane, Walnut Creek, and a graduate of Apton Jr. High School, San Francisco, and Las Lomas High, Walnut Creek.

He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Dorn of San Francisco, and the late Mr. and Mrs. August Schuppert of San Francisco.

Womens Club Meets Tuesday

On Tuesday members and guests of the Womens Club of Walnut Creek are invited to "climb aboard" and visit Alaska in the morning and South America in the afternoon, taking off from the clubhouse, 1224 Lincoln Avenue at 10 a.m. Even though this trip is to be an imaginary one, plans are being made to make the trip as realistic as possible.

At the morning meeting, the book section, with Mrs. Arthur M. Goff presiding, will present Mrs. Fred Samm who will review Edna Ferber's new novel, "Ice Palace." A collection of articles from the Far North will be displayed and during the review Mrs. Sherman Camp will show slides taken on a recent trip.

Then at noon sharp, the group will be transported to our Latin America neighbors by the art and garden section. "Coffee time" is being given by Mrs. Neleta Priger, according to Mrs. Ernest Holman, chairman. The economic influence of coffee, domestically as well as internationally, will be explained. Mrs. A. Behren will give a demonstration on the correct way to brew coffee. Refreshments and coffee will then conclude the program.

Church Plans Foor Hoolaulea

A theme of tropical splendor and South Seas enchantment will motif the Orinda Community Church Hoolaulea Friday evening, September 26, at the home of the John Dorr at 38 Oakwood Road in Orinda.

Guests will be served delicious Hawaiian and American dishes from banquet tables in the garden amid decorations expertly created by Mrs. James Chaplin and her committee. Flower arrangements are under the chairmanship of Mrs. Fred Twining. Food and punch will be prepared by the Mesdames John Ogden, F. T. Fox, J. L. McClure, C. L. Blue, Paul Cooper, D. L. Watkins and W. H. Morley.

Prizes and entertainment are on the evening agenda, including the Athens Club Water Follies, Popsi Georgian's winter ballet, Hawaiian dances by the Orinda Hula Group, mother and daughter Tahitian and Island numbers by Mary and Diane Dorr, vocals by Dolores Bernhard, surprise male comedy and a strolling Hawaiian orchestra.

Parties Precede Dance Staged by Walnut Branch

Several pre-Barn Dance parties preceded Walnut Branch's gathering at the Silva barn in Diablo Saturday for the Children's Hospital of the East Bay Branch's annual spaghetti dinner and hoe-down, for which Mrs. Donald Coffin headed arrangements this year.

Busy with last-minute details for the hospital benefit was Mrs. Coffin's committee of nine: Mrs. Philip Scheidermayer, who was in charge of food; Mrs. William Nero, invitations; Mrs. Robert Graves, decorations; Mrs. Monroe Smith, properties; Mrs. Robert Haumeder, entertainment; Mrs. Terence Ring, refreshments; Mrs. King Crosno, tickets; Mrs. William Imbrie, publicity; and Mrs. D. Charles Williams, finances.

The Robert Prescos' Solano Drive home in Lafayette was the setting for Ann and Bob's party for the Lew Dotys, Robert Clarks, Al Sperry, Merrill R. Neumanns, Larry Tinkers, Philip Griswolds, Robert Harings and Ralph Lignons.

In blue jeans and gingham respectively were Terence Ring and his wife; Lois, who despite Lois's duties later in the evening as refreshments chairman, hosted a pre-dance affair for the Arthur Johnsons, Norman Buckharts, Douglas Mattheys, Nick Carters, Carl Vendits, Robert Foleys, Edmund Borerors, Jules Lindsays, Vance Perrys, Dean Spurgeons and Jack Davises. Mr. and Mrs. George Heim entertained Betty and John Griffith, Natalie and William Imbrie, the William M. Whites, Rome Gouleys and Mr. and Mrs. Weller Phillips.

Also noted among the several hundred barn dance guests were the Messers and Mesdames Matt Connelly, Mel Nielsen, Peter Howard, Gus Spilker and William Anderson.

Proceeds from the affair will benefit the hospital's research program and part-pay assistance fund for needy children.

Junior Women's Club to Sponsor Annual Art Show

The first fall meeting of the Junior Women's Club of Walnut Creek forecasted a busy year of financial aid and personal service in the field of philanthropy, say members.

Plans are completed for a cake booth at the annual Walnut Festival to begin Thursday. It will be the first year and means project of the year.

This is the fifth year the club has participated in the Festival, proceeds of which go to improving facilities at the Recreation Center.

MEMBERS unanimously voted to sponsor the new Walnut Creek Library and will work along with the Walnut Creek Women's Club on this project.

Plans are to furnish the children's room in the library with tables and chairs. Construction on the long-awaited building will begin very soon.

Mrs. John Fontenrose, philanthropy chairman, introduced plans for a unique "School for Baby-Sitters" where teen-agers can learn more on all aspects of child care. Plans are rapidly being formed for the opening of this school.

The club will also sponsor a United Nations Week Dinner at Diablo Valley Junior College in October and will mimeograph 1000 cards for the East Contra Costa Council for the Retarded for their white elephant sale.

MRS. WILLIAM CLARATY, president, appointed the chairmen for the year. They are as follows: Amenities, Mrs. George Melkie; Build a Better Community, Mrs. A. Teichner; Crafts, Mrs. Albert Taylor; Membership, Mrs. John Knudson.

Ethics, Mrs. Paul Bonilla; International Affairs, Mrs. John Fontenrose; Historian, Mrs. L. Smith; Social, Mrs. R. Hunsford; Year Book, Mrs. Floyd Burror; Penny Art, Mrs. Thomas Graves.

Publicity, Mrs. Robert Wise; Finance, Mrs. Harry Hemstark; Religion, Mrs. Harry Du Bois; Home, Mrs. James Ninnis; Mimeograph, Mrs. A. Merrill.

Dean of Chairmen is Mrs. Roger Black.

Legion Auxiliary Group Leaders Are Named

Jayceettes' Luau Has Much Color

Nearly 100 Hawaiian garbed Jayceettes, their husbands and guests, attended the third Jayceette sponsored Luau August 29, at the Meadowbrook Country Club, Lafayette.

Polynesian decor featuring flame torches, hula nets, gaily colored lanterns and sequined fish prevailed throughout the club house, patio and grounds.

Mesdames Harold Turner, Paul Mathews, Cliff Davis, Art Keithley and most of the other women were garbed in native sarongs and leis. But to the dismay of the men a few of the wives, such as Mesdames Don Campbell, Robert Covert and Robert Williams, remained loyal to the still current "free form look" and wore those massive (but oh so comfortable) mu mus.

The evening's entertainment began when many of the group took cooling dips in the club pool. Especially admired were Mrs. Robert Richard and Mrs. Art Bouterious in their attractive swim suits.

Pleasure swimming gave way to an exciting game of water polo participated in by the harder males. Appetites whetted by this excitement were soon soothed by an oriental feast served buffet style on the lantern lit patio of the club house.

Food was eaten a la native by the pool on lauhala mats which were decked with small torches and hollowed watermelon filled with appetizers.

The evening concluded with dancing in the club house.

MD Auxiliary Will Entertain

Doctor's wives in two counties will be welcomed at a tea September 26 at 2 p.m. when Alameda and Contra Costa units of the Women's Auxiliary to the Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association entertain at the Women's Athletic Club overlooking Lake Merritt.

Mrs. Newell Jones, California Auxiliary president, will be the honor guest. In the reception line with Mrs. Jones will be Mrs. John Morrison, Alameda County president; Mrs. Robert Pinger, Contra Costa County president; and Justin R. Colburn, Southern Alameda branch chairman. Assisting with introductions will be Mrs. Homer Wolfson, an officer in the California Auxiliary.

Three past state presidents from Alameda County will be asked to preside at the tea table. Mrs. Stanley Truman, Mrs. Etta Rogers and Mrs. William Henry Sargent, as well as past president of Contra Costa County, Mrs. William Flood. Mrs. John Newkirk will play background piano music during the afternoon. Arrangements chairman is Mrs. Robert R. Crostie and decorations are being planned by Mrs. Luiz J. Madeira.

Mrs. Fred Fisher, hospitality chairman, has announced that among the hostesses are Mrs. Norman Portello, Orinda; Mrs. Howard Flanders and Mrs. Charles Hart, both Walnut Creek.

Humpty Dumpty Plans Big Fall Fashion Show

Humpty Dumpty Chapter of the Children's Home Society will hold a fashion show and luncheon September 27 at El Nido in Lafayette. Theme for the fall fundraising affair will be "Football Fashions." Mrs. Jack Davis of Sheldon Court, Walnut Creek, is general chairman.

Two patio coffees were held in August, one in the home of Chapter President Mrs. Eugene Sals in Danville, and the other at the Concord home of Mrs. August Wiemen.

Mrs. Sals explained the work of the society, the largest privately-supported adoptive agency in California.

Members are selling tickets for a one-man exhibit of the paintings of Mr. Abel G. Warshawsky on Tuesday, November 25, at Del Monte Lodge, Pebble Beach, to benefit the Children's Home Society of California. Warshawsky, internationally known artist, who has studied at the Cleveland School of Art, Art Students League in New York, and the National Academy of Design in Paris, will present an award at the show—a portrait to be executed by him of the recipient or anyone designated by the recipient.

During the sittings, recipient and a companion will be guests at the Highlands Inn in Carmel.

Mrs. Frank P. Bray of Monterey is general chairman, and Humpty Dumpty Chapter chairman is Mrs. Robert Inger of Walnut Creek.

OES Picnic Is Sunday

Almona Chapter No. 214 Order of the Eastern Star will hold a picnic at Mitchell Canyon Sunday at 11 a.m.

Cy Turner, chairman, has planned a gala affair for all ages. Events of the day will be watermelon and pie eating contest, baseball (ladies vs. gentlemen) sack race for Worthy Matrons against Past Worthy Matrons, potato race for children, barrel race for star points, swimming and dancing for all. All members and their families are welcome.

Assisting Turner on the picnic committee are Daniel Halstead, Jr., Worthy Patron Ruth Sisson, Homer Briner, Jerry Nordlund, Lillian Lovejoy, Ed Burr and Bob McCarthy.

A pot luck dinner will be served at 4 p.m.

Children and adult models will show fashions from two Orinda firms, Virginia Hammond's and Heaven to Eleven, and from Alfred Nipkow & Company of Walnut Creek.

Chairman for the luncheon is Mrs. Heber Smith, and Mrs. Munson Everett is branch chairman. Mrs. Paul Larsen is in charge of tickets.

Jaycees Hold Luau Party

Lafayette Jaycees entertained their wives and guests with a Hawaiian luau Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Simonds.

The costumed guests were presented with leis on arrival. Fish nets, anchors, and tropical plants were part of the South Pacific decor used on the patio and garden.

Swimming in the pool was followed by the serving of an authentic Tahitian punch during the cocktail hour.

Flowers, palm leaves and tropical fruits decorated the traditional luau tables on the lawn from which a variety of Polynesian food was served.

Dancing on the patio during the balmy evening completed the delightful "Island" party for the 60 Jaycees and guests.

Football Fever Strikes Preps

Pleasant Hill Rams Have Spirit, Size and Speed

Coaches Hal Briggs and George Galli have been stepping up the workouts of the Pleasant Hill Rams and they have responded with a spirit that bodes a rough go for their opponents in the rapidly approaching season of 1958.

Multiple Offense Installed By Piedmont Gridders

The Piedmont Highlanders under Coach Bob Muenster have installed a multiple offense for the 1958 football season, and with it hope to produce problems or the defense.

This means they will run from several formations—variations of the T-formation and enough double wing plays to keep the defensive units guessing.

Steve Wilcox, a 190-pound senior, runs the club from the quarterback slot and the season dope ranks him as one of the Bay Area's best.

Teamed with a good crop of veterans, the Piedmont eleven is picked by most as the favorite to cop the pennant in the first year of existence of the Diablo Valley Athletic League.

The team is described by Muenster as being well balanced but has a problem which appears to be universal—lack of depth.

Muenster goes out on a limb and picks Las Lomas as the club to beat while admitting that his own club has a good chance to go all the way.

One player in particular that the opposition will have to watch is end Jim Taggart, who was a favorite target for the aerial shots of Wilcox last season.

The Highlanders have always been a colorful team with their precision play.

Fans will get their first looks at them on Friday, September 19, when they play host to Fremont under the lights in an 8 p.m. game.

Mrs. Patch Top In Medal Play

Winner of low gross score in medal play on Ladies Guest Day at Diablo Country Club was Mrs. Peter Patch with a 74. Other scores:

Class A—Mrs. A. R. Anderson, 85-15-70; Mrs. Henry Kusserow, 80-9-71; Mrs. James Sharp, 86-14-72.

Class B—Mrs. H. W. Baughman, 91-19-72; Mrs. Tom Derry, 94-22-72; Mrs. Don Thomas, 90-18-72; Mrs. William Quinn, 94-22-72; Mrs. A. M. Sullivan, 94-19-75; Mrs. Jack Fingel, 93-18-75.

Class C—Mrs. Art Brunkhorts, 90-25-65; Mrs. R. Bartell, 93-23-70; Mrs. B. H. Kirkland, 94-23-71; Mrs. J. H. Miller, 94-23-71.

Class D—Mrs. Everett Goins, 98-30-68; Mrs. Jack Davis, 97-29-68; Mrs. R. D. Fish, 96-27-69; and Mrs. William Houston, 96-26-70.

Matador's First Scrum Shows Room for Work

The Miramonte Matadors held their first top flight scrimmage last Saturday and it found the play as to be expected, a little on the ragged side.

As head man Don Brooks put it, "No one really stood out."

The search is on at present for a breakaway back who has the speed and swerve to go all the way.

The backs as a whole are a steady crowd and display a consistent brand of ball toting, but lack the breakaway threat which makes the flanker "T" go.

COACH BROOKS in his first year at the helm, has been installing his version of the flanker "T," which finds two deep backs plus a quarterback and a flanker. The flanker varies his position and is given considerable leeway in his play which creates defensive problems.

The Matadors face Pacifica in their opener and it will mark the first game of varsity ball for the Orinda school.

Having seniors for the first time means varsity competition for the first time, and that's a big hurdle.

In Floyd Blaney the Matadors have a senior quarterback who has grid ability and rates as a fine all-around athlete.

Chances are the Matadors will use the air lanes plenty as Blaney has a good passing arm.

ONE ADVANTAGE the team does have is that they have played together for the most part going on their fourth year in high school ball and that could help plenty.

Pacifica wound up on a light note last year when they tripped Acalanes as they got their split "T" going with a vengeance when they turned in their season's best defensive show.

It will be a good test for Miramonte and one that could give a good indication of how they will fare in their first year of varsity play.

Buddy Boeger, giant junior tackle who weighs well over the 200 pound mark, is rounding into shape and could be an important defensive as well as offensive cog.

Knights Sluggish In Practice Go In Walnut Creek

The Las Lomas Knights had two workouts scheduled for last Saturday, but head coach George DeKlotz called the afternoon session off after a sluggish morning practice.

A pair of workouts were set for Tuesday with contact drills and a scrimmage session the order of the day.

The Knights have the size and experience to be a rough and ready club.

During the last two years the Knights have lost three games, dropping a pair of tilts to Pittsburg and one to Acalanes last year.

They meet Drake in the opener and it should find the Walnut Creek stadium well filled as fans will flock to see the '58 version of the Knights.

Sideline Slants

Seasonal Siege of Illness, (Dementia Footballitis) Hits

By ERWIN MATTSON

The prep and collegiate football season opens next weekend and right now it's all a matter of surmise as to how the various clubs will stack up.

Coaches as a group are an affable lot when it comes to discussing their squads, but are as individual as their systems of play when it comes to their outlook.

SOME ARE PESSIMISTIC and cautious in their outlook while others bubble with confidence and optimism. Sometimes one gets so close to the squad that they are working with that it is difficult to analyze them and then again it's not easy to judge the opposition.

It's like going out and watching the 49ers practice and being impressed with their size and skill. It's easy to feel that here is a sure fire winner until you see the other clubs and sometimes it's a surprise to find out that they have bigger and faster players.

ONE THING THE local prep coaches have for the most part in common is that the seasonal hot weather has slowed their progress down and whenever night workouts have been held results have been much better.

Football is a complicated game and the teaching of sound fundamentals is the foundation in which a club is built.

It's the hard work of football, but the necessary work on which success or failure depends.

METHODS OF TEACHING vary and as is the case in anything theories change from time to time as do systems of play.

Coaches spend hours off the field preparing for the schedule of practice that is set up each day.

Actual game time is but a small part of the picture and the problems are many running from equipment and field preparation to personnel.

The high school varsity coach as a rule has an assistant which is in direct contrast to colleges and pros where line coaches, end coaches, back coaches, defensive coaches, and head coaches are the order of the day plus a crew of maintenance men and numerous scouts.

The high school coach has players varying greatly in size shape and ability—many out for football for the first time. Players with a great variance in capabilities and physical assets play alongside one another.

THE PREP COACH can't recruit, buy or trade players, but depends on what comes to him.

But then that's a part of the game because human nature being what it is there are second guessers in every phase of life whether it be a sports event or how and where to build a road.

Could well be, as someone once said: "That's what makes the world go around."

Orinda Youngsters Win Championship in League

The San Francisco Giants against one loss to move into the Tournament of Champions.

The six-team league is under the auspices of the Oakland Recreation Department.

Coached by the threesome of Joe Angelo, Dub Little and Don Texdahl, the circuit champs include Scott Hallsted, Gary Baker, John Watkins, Mike Little, Jay Grilli, Jay Angelo, Jack DeWitt, Bill Loughman, Steve Smith, Bob Williams, Bruce Nickerson, Ken Hamburg, Mike Fallentine, Jack McClure, Kent Miller, Tom Ballard and Dave Texdahl. And the league's Pacific Division don't forget the batboy, little crown by registering nine wins Pat Little.

Sponsored by Shoe Hustead of Berkeley, the Orindans captured one better by winning the loop championship.

Baldwin To Talk

Sixth District Rep. John F. Baldwin will address some 300 eighth grade Orinda students concerning the U.S. Constitution and work of Congress at 2 p.m., Friday, September 12.

Congressman Baldwin, who has addressed thousands of students, will stress a topic he has found confusing to young minds, "The Legislative Powers Vested in Congress Compared with the Executive Power."

Dons Work Overtime to Prepare for Grid Start

Coaches Jack Carhart and Buzz Williams have been working overtime with emphasis on perfection of skill and assignments as they ready the Acalanes Dons for the grid season opener next Friday.

The Dons are definitely on the light side and have depth problems overcome in part by agility and speed.

Dave Larsen is a late comer to the varsity ranks and will be tried at center where help is needed for Phil Condit, Larsen, up from the JVs, may fill the bill.

The varsity is down to 30 men now with several prospects moving down to JV ball for further seasoning.

THE DONS are three-deep at the quarterback slot with Mike Kritscher (senior), Don Nelson (junior) and Tom Stram (soph.) all looking to be capable hands.

Stram has also been effective with his conversion kicking and rates as the number one toe at this writing.

Nelson has been effective with his passing while Kritscher has shown running ability along with his aerial and ball handling.

JACK CARMAN has been a standout in the punting department with fast leg action that results in not only a good getaway but good height and adequate distance.

Scrimmage to date has been very limited with the first big one set for today which will probably go a long way toward setting personnel for the opener.

Jim Walker although on the light side for a tackle with his 170 pounds has impressed with his speed and drive. He is rated as the top prospect in the forward wall and could be one of the league's best.

GARY GREBLO, who at 163 is the Don's heaviest back, has been improving fast and may wind up on the starting eleven.

Chances are all hands will get in plenty of playing time in the practice games prior to league play due to the small size of the varsity squad and with it will come shifts in the first eleven as players show to advantage and vice-versa.

Cliff Bennett, Pacheco's number one hardtop pilot, showed them all he knew his way around the track last week at Contra Costa Speedway. Bennett, in his flashy orange number 25 won the first heat, came in third in the trophy dash, and with a brilliant display of skill and handling took the semi-main event.

This is the finest racing the local veteran has done all season. Cliff had been driving number 37 most of the early season, and just couldn't seem to get started with it. His new little 25 looks like just the ticket to bring him into contention.

JOHNNY FRANKLIN, Santa Rosa, won his second main event in a row and his sixth of the season. He is still trailing Wally Baker and Hugh Purdy in point standings, however, Baker leads with 827 points, and Purdy carries 790.

Leroy Geving of Santa Rosa set a new track record in the fourth heat by winning it in the time of 2 minutes, 10.58 seconds.

Jack Huddleston of Concord looked very good in the third heat, placing second, and also coming in sixth in the final.

"Wild Bill" Rasset of Walnut Creek lived up to his moniker once more, as he plunged through the fence in the first lap of the

Diablo Valley's Vikings Look Hopeful, Optimistic

"Hopeful and optimistic" seems to be the general outlook for the '58 football season at Diablo Valley College. The Vikings just completing their first week of practice have shown good speed in the backfield and fair depth in all positions.

Head coach Jack Danilovich and his assistant Hugh Boschetti have been putting their men through some grueling morning and afternoon sessions stressing condition and fundamentals, with a few running and passing plays.

DANILOVICH SAYS that this will be the toughest season to date for the Vikings eleven with four non-league games scheduled against strong Oakland, Modesto, Santa Rosa and Shasta Junior Colleges. The Coast Conference also strong and boasting many returning lettermen to their squads.

The Vikings with only four returning lettermen, Myron Robb, Pittsburg, Mike Hart, Alhambra, George Darrow, Mt. Diablo, and Frank Malynn, Acalanes, have OWNER: Near Clayton, like new, 3 bedrooms, 2 tile baths, family room, heavy shake roof, fireplace, double garage, walnuts $21,500. MU 5-6309 evenings, weekends.

YOUNG PARENTS

We bought our insulated 3 bedroom home because it is excellent for raising children. Located on a court, there's no need to fear passing traffic, and our fenced back yard with patio, pear and shade trees is well adapted to small fry. Our landscaped yard and well decorated interior with fireplace and hardwood floors make this a home we are proud of. We are being transferred and are forced to sell. $12,700. 1109 Apple Court, Concord. MU 2-6647.

SUNCREST YELLOW

exterior, California Ranch home, heavy shake roof, against a background of giant Redwood trees. Low 2 low look achieved with 22x25 garage connected by breezeway, designed by William L. Diehl, built by Harold Roach for present owner 1 1/2 years ago. Visitors approach, on concrete circular driveway, fenced, lovingly landscaped, 1/2 acres.

Richly carpeted living room, divided from family room with double flagstone wall and louvered doors. Raised hearth fireplace in each, 46 inch opening. Adjoining well planned kitchen, breakfast bar, dinette, sliding glass doors opening to covered patio overlooking elevated tropical garden bed, all combine for varied and simultaneous family activities without interference.

Separate laundry and sewing room, 2 1/2 tile baths, showers, best quality. Crane fixtures, 4 bedrooms, 3 twin sized, 1 ash paneled may substitute for end or guest room. Additional extras include, touch plate electric circuits, 2 master control panels, built-in music and public address, air conditioning, complete insulation.

So here you have, the best quality, most carefully conceived, and executed, luxurious easily cared for small estate. Near Alamo. Move in, sit down and enjoy suburban living. Owner must reluctantly sell at once, so price is only $37,500, $12,500 down. Call to see now.

New Suits Span Seasons
Of Both Fall and Winter

Fabrics and silhouettes, with the frequent addition of fur trimmings, combine to give many of the new suits a definite fall-through-winter character.

Longer jackets team up with skirts or dresses in the highly-important walking suits, which are designed to go on into winter. The jackets vary from wrist-to-seven-eighths length.

Short jacket suits, too, can span the seasons, thanks in large part to their unfitted ease.

The variety of suit styles finds a corresponding variety among coats, thus facilitating the choice of a coat to go over a suit. And, since the three-piece ensemble is one of fall's favorite looks, many suits come with their own matching coats.

"Into winter" fabrics of the new suits feature warmth without weight and plenty of surface interest, in highly textured tweeds, hairy boucles, nubby surfaces, ribbed and knitted effects. Worsteds in blends with fur or rabbit hair, wool prints, supple broadcloths and bold houndstooth checks are other suiting favorites. Unfitted ease is, as noted, the prevailing theme in suits. High-belted Empire jackets, walking-suit tunic jackets, trapeze and chemise shapes and double-breasted jackets appear among the newsmakers, while shapes for skirts vary from slim and straight to tapered oval, and from jutting trapeze to pleated.

Fur trimmings are at the peak of interest, with special attention to long-haired furs such as lynx, red or black fox and raccoon.

When it comes to color, anything goes—including bold plaids and checks, bright shades, harvest hues and new winter pastels.

Stores Open Two Nights In Broadway

The Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, is open until 9 p.m. for evening shoppers on Thursday and Friday nights. A few stores are open until 9:30.

Only in the evenings (or Saturday) can dad and mother assemble their youngsters for a family shopping trip.

"Now on Thursday and Friday night they can take their time, browse through the air-conditioned stores at leisure, and enjoy nature's air conditioning outside," commented George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

"Many shoppers find it convenient to have dinner or a light snack downtown, beforehand, avoiding the bother of preparing dinner and washing dishes at home," Webster added.

Cottonwood Branch Plans Party Saturday

The Cottonwood Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay will hold its annual cocktail party Saturday at the home of Mrs. George T. Jackson, 24 Owl Hill Court, Orinda.

It will begin at 5 p.m. Theme will be "Cotton Pickin' Cocktail Party."

JUST ABOUT THE HAPPIEST little girl in Central Contra Costa is Debbie Cooper of Concord, who won "Broadway Boy", the pony given away by the Broadway Shopping Center during the "Back to School" celebration. "Debbie was sure she would win, but she can't seem to get used to it," said her mother, Mrs. Harold Cooper of Treat Lane. (Sun Photo by Richard Morse.)

There are three things that are easy to find in the Broadway Shopping Center — quality merchandise, friendly service and parking.

"The motoring shopper will be pleased to find many spaces waiting for her, and thanks to the compactness of Broadway, only a few steps will take her to favorite shops," Sal Blasquez of the Broadway Merchants committee commented.

"Broadway has a total of 2,200 parking spaces, as a result of careful planning by the developers and the Broadway Merchants Association."

"If you arrive during the busiest time of the week, and find that one lot is full, just drive on a short distance, and another lot with available spaces will beckon," Blasquez said.

Large lots are located behind Capwell's, in front of and across the street from Capwell's in the center of Broadway, behind Penney's and next to the Lucky Store—2,200 spaces!

Fall Neckwear
Reflects Bright
Hues of Season

New fall neckwear is going to give the bright hues of the autumn countryside a run for their money, reports the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear, as it appears the era of the overly conservative tie has run its course.

Men's fashion analysts have been anticipating their switch to more colorful and more interesting neckwear for some time. The recent popularity of the darker shades, they say, was due to two factors:

First, many men went to somber neckwear shades after getting their fill of the garish post-war ties of bombastic design.

Second, many men who adopted

Betty Finds Some Gems
On Her Shopping Tour

By BETTY

I was in a big dash early this morning to get down to the Broadway Shopping Center. I noticed that Stinnett's Pastries is featuring a "Mystery Cake" which they want someone to name.

I saw this marvelous-looking three layers of white chiffon with a filling of chocolate parfait, frosted with French cream.

I'M GOING to call it "Broadway Parfait Creme" and, if I win, I'll get four of Stinnett's cakes-of-the-week over the next month.

George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association, will be the contest judge. The contest is open to anyone and everyone, of course.

SPEAKING OF BROADWAY, have you been into Penney's during the past few days? Well, let me tell you of some wonderful "Private Corduroy Pants" that are being offered.

They come in seven luscious colors, plus white, and have smart styling.

By the by, if it's fashions, Goldman's has a fashion surprise with a dressy wool jersey.

Over in their budget dress department, I saw this completely lined, wool jersey in red and green. It is striking.

I STARTED THINKING about the children's music lessons as I was walking up Broadway. Sherman-Clay has a fine stock of new and reconditioned student instruments from which to choose.

If you haven't bought your children's school shoes yet, Broadway has a tremendous selection. See them at Kushin's, Capwell's, Smiths, Goldman's, J.M. Senior's Junior Bootery, Grodins, Penney's, Karl's, Kirby's and Grande's.

There is something really new under the sun at Smiths. You've heard about it, you're husband has talked about it, and now it's here.

It is the new Northweave, which Smiths says is "the world's first automatic wash and wear suit in that year around weight."

The suit goes through the automatic washer and dryer automatically in about an hour. No drip-drying.

BEFORE I FORGET about it, let me tell you about those shirt dresses at Capwell's.

They are Country Club styled in 55 percent dacron and 35 percent pima cotton. They are easy to wash and need very little pressing.

Sterling Furniture Company, which is open Fridays from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., has a marvelous assortment of slim-lined foam-cushioned sectionals. These sectionals are featured in two and three pieces in a wide variety of colors, shapes and styles.

Youthful Look and Color
Dominate Fall Fashions

Youthfulness, ease and color are the dominant characteristics of this fall's dresses and costumes, with luxury expressed in richly textured fabrics and fur trims.

Probably never before has there been a greater variety of silhouettes — among them the bubble, the chemise, the trapeze and the still-popular sheath and shirt-waist.

Newest looking are styles with high-waisted Empire lines and subtle shaping through the bustline. Very often, fitted fronts are combined with backs that flare, billow or curve in a rounded cocoon or sickle line with no waistline demarcation.

Both high and low waistlines are popular. When high, for the new Empire look, they are marked by drawstrings, belts, seams and trimmings placed below the bustline.

Mardi-Gras Spirit Goes With Broadway Shoppers

Shopping may have been considered "a chore" at one time, but that just isn't the case at the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, according to George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association. It's easy to get to Broadway, it's easy to park, and the "togetherness" of the variety of stores makes it easy to find the one you want, Webster said. "We want to bring the best products at the most reasonable prices to our customers, but we take a lot of pleasure in making Broadway a fun place to shop for both young and old. There is always plenty to divert all age groups, and our special promotion programs offer excellent entertainment."

The kids get their merry-go-round, which is operated six days a week, also free gifts from some stores and the pleasure of seeing top-grade entertainers during special sales.

"The colorful, attractive appearance of Broadway appeals to residents of all ages."

"There is much to see in the department stores and specialty shops, and good things to eat in restaurants and snack bars. Nothing is lacking for an enjoyable day in Broadway", Webster said.

Capwell's Sets Sewing Course

Six lecture demonstrations by Dorie Baysdorfer, European-trained instructor, will be presented at the training room in Capwell's, Broadway Shopping Center.

The sewing school will cover basic steps in dressmaking, according to John Tague, store manager.

The lessons will be conducted each Tuesday from September 23 through October 23 from 10 to 11:30 a.m. Admission for the

Wide Variety of Styles Available in Sportswear

Sportswear is associated in the mind of the average American male having a good time while taking life easy — and designers have kept this in mind in putting together a really exciting collection of sports jackets and slacks for fall '58.

Two examples are the "gusset back" which offers greater freedom of motion and deep vents, either at the sides of the jacket or in the center, making for easy access to trouser pockets.

THE SPORTS JACKET styles are almost limitless — Norfolk types, some with detachable belts, new two-button "ivy" styles, three-button models with the buttons set much higher, hacking pockets, bold and muted plaids, wide wale diagonals, hocksacks, blazers in both single- and double-breasted models, and others, including the standard styles.

Blends of man-made fibers with wool or cotton are seen more frequently this fall. Some feature wrinkle-resistant properties.

Tweeds, shetlands and chevrons — some in herringbone patterns, some with stripes, others in interesting mixtures — are worn in a wide variety of weights. These range from the standard full-bodied winter weights and med-versible vests, and corduroys.

Slacks for fall retain their slim and trim look, and make the most of tailoring treatments. The single pleat model has achieved greater acceptance among men who like pleats but also want the trim look. The classic double-pleat styles are still very popular, too, in self-supporting as well as in belted models. The "ivy" models, of course, are made with plain fronts but the familiar back-straps are missing from many this year.

There is fabric news in slacks, too — iridescent types, Bedford cords, fine hopsackings and the always welcome flannels, whipcords, coverts and gabardines.

Pockets are seen in straight lines at the side seams, front angled polo types and Western "gambler" styles that originated with frontier pants.

More popular than ever are the matched sets of sports jackets and slacks. These have patterned jackets with slacks in a solid shade that picks up the ground color of the coat.
